Effective for any tax year commencing on or after January first, two thousand twenty-three, an individual and/or business in any taxable year may elect to contribute to the emergency financial relief fund. Such contribution shall be in any whole dollar amount and shall not include or reduce the amount of state tax owed by such individual or business. The commissioner shall include space on the personal income and business income tax returns to enable a taxpayer to make such contribution. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all revenues collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to the emergency financial relief fund and used only for the purposes enumerated in section eighty-nine-k of the state finance law.

On or before the first day of February each year, the New York state department of labor shall provide a written report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair of the senate committee on labor, and the chair of the assembly committee on labor. Such report shall be made available to the public on the New York state department of labor's website. Such report shall include how the monies of the fund were utilized during the preceding calendar year and shall include:

6. Monies of the fund shall be expended only for purposes of compensating a qualified person as determined by the New York state department of labor.

7. Monies shall be paid out of the fund on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers approved and certified by the New York state department of labor.
