2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 9, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. BURDICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to notice of eligibility for unemployment benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 590 of the labor law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2 to read as follows:

2. Notice of eligibility upon separation from employment. Every employer liable under this article for contributions shall inform each employee of their right to file an application for unemployment benefits with the department. Such information shall be given at the time of each permanent or indefinite separation from employment, reduction in hours, temporary separation, and any other interruption of continued employment that results in total or partial unemployment. Such notice shall be given in writing on a form furnished or approved by the department and shall include:

(a) the employer's name and registration number;

(b) the address of the employer to which a request for remuneration and employment information with respect to such employee must be directed; and

(c) such other information as is required by the commissioner.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
