Introduced by M. of A. HUNTER, COLTON, DICKENS, SIMON, ZEBROWSKI, JACOBSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the lien law, in relation to requiring a surety bond for contractors and subcontractors where no public fund has been established for the financing of a public improvement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 5 of the lien law, as amended by chapter 155 of the 2 laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 5. Liens under contracts for public improvements. A person perform-4 ing labor for or furnishing materials to a contractor, his or her
5 subcontractor or legal representative, for the construction or demoli-
6 tion of a public improvement pursuant to a contract by such contractor 7 with the state or a public corporation, and any trust fund to which 8 benefits and wage supplements are due or payable for the benefit of such 9 person performing labor, shall have a lien for the principal and inter-10 est of the value or agreed price of such labor, including benefits and 11 wage supplements due or payable for the benefit of any person performing 12 labor, or materials upon the moneys of the state or of such corporation 13 applicable to the construction or demolition of such improvement, to the 14 extent of the amount due or to become due on such contract, and under a 15 judgment of the court of claims awarded to the contractor for damages 16 arising from the breach of such contract by the state, or awarded for 17 furnishing labor or materials not contemplated by the provisions of said 18 contract, upon filing a notice of lien as prescribed in this article, 19 except as hereinafter in this article provided. Where no public fund has 20 been established for the financing of a public improvement with esti-21 mated cost in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the chief 22 financial officer of the public owner shall require the private entity 23 for whom the public improvement is being made to post, or cause to be 24 posted, a surety bond issued by a surety duly licensed in the state of
