fees, sexual offender registration fees, or supplemental sex offender victim fees (Part G)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation 2 relating to ending the unfair financial burdens imposed on defendants in 3 criminal, vehicle and traffic, or other types of criminal or quasi-cri-
4 minal matters by the existence of mandatory court surcharges and fees, 5 mandatory minimum fines and mandatory probation or parole fees. This 6 act further enacts into law procedures by which courts would be required 7 to engage in an individualized assessment of a person's financial abili-
8 ty to pay a fine prior to imposing a fine, eliminates the availability 9 of incarceration as a remedy for a failure to pay a fine, and vacates 10 all existing warrants or unsatisfied civil judgments issued solely based 11 on a person's failure to timely pay a fine, surcharge, or fee. Each 12 component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A 13 through G. The effective date for each particular provision contained 14 within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any 15 provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effec-
16 tive date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", 17 when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed 18 to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it 19 is found. Section four of this act sets forth the general effective 20 date of this act.

21 § 2. Legislative intent. The legislative intent of this act is to end 22 the inequitable financial burdens placed on defendants by the previously 23 enacted statutory provisions which have authorized or mandated the impo-24 sition of surcharges, fees, and/or mandatory minimum fines, which have 25 had a disparate impact on poor defendants, people of color, and those 26 who lack access to the significant financial resources necessary in 27 order to satisfy the imposition of surcharges, fees, and fines, and 28 which have also contributed to mass incarceration in New York state. The 29 legislative intent is also to end New York's regressive reliance on 30 generating governmental revenue by imposing surcharges, fees, and fines 31 on those least able to pay.

32

3 not be more than fifty dollars. The court shall require an initial 4 payment of such portion of the reduced filing fee as the incarcerated 5 individual can reasonably afford or shall authorize no initial payment 6 of the fee if exceptional circumstances render the incarcerated individ-7 ual unable to pay any fee; provided however, that the difference between 8 the amount of the reduced filing fee and the amount paid by the incar-

10 against the incarcerated individual as an outstanding obligation to be 11 collected either by the superintendent or the municipal official of the 12 facility at which the incarcerated individual is confined, as the case

30 he or she should be paroled in accordance with the guidelines adopted 31 pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this 32 article. If parole is not granted upon such review, the incarcerated 33 individual shall be informed in writing within two weeks of such appear-34 ance of the factors and reasons for such denial of parole. Such reasons

41 comply with any restitution order, [~~mandatory surcharge, sex offender~~ 42 ~~registration fee and DNA databank fee~~] previously imposed by a court of 43 competent jurisdiction that applies to the parolee. The conditions shall 44 indicate which restitution collection agency established under subdivi-

24 imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction that applies to the paro-
25 lee. The conditions shall indicate which restitution collection agency 26 established under subdivision eight of section 420.10 of the criminal 27 procedure law, shall be responsible for collection of restitution [~~and 28 mandatory surcharge as provided for in section 60.35 of the penal law

47 amended to read as follows:

48 (a) A merit termination granted by the department under this section 49 shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it 50 was granted. No such merit termination shall be granted unless the 51 department is satisfied that termination of sentence from presumptive 52 release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision is in 53 the best interest of society[, ~~and that the parolee or releasee, other-54 wise financially able to comply with an order of restitution and the 55 payment of any mandatory surcharge previously imposed by a court of~~

1 ~~competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to comply there-~~
