8 § 100. Penalties and remedies. 1. Every person or the state, its 9 subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and any other affiliated 10 entities, and all municipal entities in this state, including but not 11 limited to counties, school districts, towns, and villages who, is 12 acting or which acts under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, 13 custom, or usage, of this state, subjects, or causes to be subjected,
14 any citizen of this state or other person within the jurisdiction there-15 of to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured 16 by the constitution and laws of this state, shall be liable to the party
17 injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding
18 for redress, except that in any action brought against a judicial offi-
19 cer for an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity 20 such officer shall not be held liable unless such action was clearly in 21 excess of such officer's jurisdiction.

1 2. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction over all suits brought 2 for the vindication of civil rights as provided in subdivision one of 3 this section. The parties in an action brought pursuant to this section 4 shall have the right to a jury trial.

5 3. (a) In any action or proceeding to enforce this section or the 6 human rights law, the court shall award the prevailing party, other than 7 the state, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs.

8 (b) In awarding an attorney's fee under paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
9 sion in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of this article, 10 the court shall include reasonable expert fees as part of the attorney's 11 fee.

12 4. This article shall displace any jurisdiction currently existing in 13 the courts or administrative agencies of this state and shall be the 14 exclusive remedy for the type of injury referred to in this section.

15 5. In interpreting this section, the courts may, except as set forth 16 herein, consider the fundamental principles already enunciated by the 17 federal courts in interpreting 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, which are the 18 parallel federal civil rights laws, except as indicated in subdivisions 19 six and seven of this section.

20 6. The state hereby waives its sovereign immunity and consents on 21 behalf of itself, its subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and 22 any other affiliated entity to suit as provided herein. The doctrine of 23 qualified immunity is hereby abolished and shall not be asserted as a 24 defense to any action arising under this section, unless specifically 25 set forth in this section.

26 7. The state, its subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and any 27 other affiliated entities, and all municipal entities in this state, 28 including but not limited to counties, school districts, towns, and 29 villages, shall be liable in respondent superior for the actions of any 30 person or entity committing constitutional violations as referred to in 31 subdivision one of this section. Any act committed while on the prem-
32 ises of the employer or using equipment or an instrumentality provided 33 by the employer shall be considered within the scope of employment.

34 § 2. Section 24 of the correction law is REPEALED.

35 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 36 have become a law.
