AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to operators of a vehicle overtaking a bicycle or pedestrian

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1122-a of the vehicle and traffic law, as added by chapter 413 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1122-a. Overtaking a bicycle or pedestrian. ~~[The]~~ (a) For cities having a population of less than one million and towns and villages, the operator of a vehicle overtaking, from behind, a bicycle proceeding on the same side of a roadway shall pass to the left of such bicycle [at a safe distance until safely clear thereof] with due care.

(i) For purposes of this section, such due care shall include, but not be limited to, moving from a lane or shoulder which contains or is immediately adjacent to the bicyclist to another lane until safely clear thereof, provided that such movement otherwise complies with the requirements of this chapter including, but not limited to, the provisions of sections eleven hundred ten and eleven hundred twenty-eight of this chapter.

(ii) If moving from an immediately adjacent lane to another lane would not otherwise comply with the requirements of this chapter, the operator of such vehicle shall pass to the left of such bicycle at a distance of not less than three feet until safely clear thereof.

(iii) If moving from an immediately adjacent lane to another lane or passing to the left of such bicycle at a distance of not less than three

1 feet would not otherwise comply with the requirements of this chapter, 2 the operator of such vehicle shall only pass such bicycle if, after 3 considering the actual and potential hazards then existing, doing so is 4 reasonable and prudent under the conditions.

5 (b) For cities having a population of less than one million and for 6 towns and villages, the operator of a vehicle passing a pedestrian 7 proceeding on the same side of a roadway shall pass to the left of such 8 pedestrian by: (i) moving from a lane or shoulder which contains or is 9 immediately adjacent to the pedestrian to another lane until safely 10 clear thereof, provided that such movement otherwise complies with the 11 requirements of this chapter including, but not limited to, the 12 provisions of sections eleven hundred ten and eleven hundred twenty-13 eight of this chapter; or (ii) if moving from an immediately adjacent 14 lane to another lane would not otherwise comply with the requirements of 15 this chapter, the operator of such vehicle shall pass to the left of 16 such pedestrian at a distance of not less than three feet until safely 17 clear thereof; or (iii) if moving from an immediately adjacent lane to 18 another lane or passing to the left of such pedestrian at a distance of 19 not less than three feet would not otherwise comply with the require-20 ments of this chapter, the operator of such vehicle shall only pass such 21 pedestrian if, after considering the actual and potential hazards then 22 existing, doing so is reasonable and prudent under the conditions.

23 (c) For any city not covered under the provisions of subdivision (a) 24 of this section, the operator of a vehicle overtaking, from behind, a 25 bicycle proceeding on the same side of a roadway shall pass to the left 26 of such bicycle at a safe distance until safely clear thereof.

27 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 28 it shall have become a law.
