47	(2) Include a description of a consumer's rights pursuant to subdivi-
48	sion four of this section, along with a separate link to the "Do Not
49	Sell My Personal Information" webpage in: (A) its online privacy policy
50	or policies if the business has an online privacy policy or policies,
51	and (B) any state specific description of consumers' privacy rights;
52	(3) Ensure that all individuals responsible for handling consumer
53	inquiries about the business's privacy practices or the business's
54	compliance with this section are informed of all requirements in this
55	subdivision as well as subdivision four of this section, and how to
56	direct consumers to exercise their rights under those sections:

1	(4) For consumers who exercise their right to opt out of the sale of
2	their personal information, refrain from selling personal information
3	collected by the business about the consumer;
4	(5) For a consumer who has opted out of the sale of the consumer's
5	personal information, respect the consumer's decision to opt out for at 6	least twelve months before requesting that the consumer authorize the 7	sale of the consumer's personal information; and
8	(6) Use any personal information collected from the consumer in
9	connection with the submission of the consumer's opt out request solely
10	for the purposes of complying with the opt out request.
11	(b) A consumer may authorize another person to opt out on the consum-
12	er's behalf, and a business shall comply with an opt out request
13	received from a person authorized by the consumer to act on the consum-
14	er's behalf.
15	8. (a) The obligations imposed on businesses by subdivisions two and
16	seven of this section shall not restrict a business's ability to:
17	(1) comply with federal, state, or local laws;
18	(2) comply with a civil, criminal, or regulatory investigation or
19	subpoena or summons by federal, state, or local authorities;
20	(3) cooperate with law enforcement agencies concerning conduct or
21	activity that the business reasonably and in good faith believes may
22	violate federal, state, or local law; or
23	(4) collect and sell a consumer's personal information if every aspect
24	of such commercial conduct takes place wholly outside of the state. For
25	purposes of this section, commercial conduct takes place wholly outside
26	of the state if the business collected such information while the
27	consumer was outside of the state, no part of the sale of the consumer's
28	personal information occurred in the state, and no personal information
29	collected while the consumer was in the state is sold.
30	(b) The obligations imposed on businesses by subdivisions two and
31	seven of this section shall not apply where compliance by the business
32	with this section would violate an evidentiary privilege under state law
33	and shall not prevent a business from providing the personal information
34 25	of a consumer to a person covered by an evidentiary privilege under
35 26	state law as part of a privileged communication.
36 37	(c) This section shall not apply to protected health information that is collected by a covered entity governed by the medical privacy and
38	security rules issued by the Federal Department of Health and Human
39	Services, Parts 160 and 164 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regu-
40	lations, established pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and
41	Availability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). For purposes of this subdivision, the 42	definitions of "protected health information" and "covered entity" from
43	the federal privacy rule shall apply.
44	(d) This section shall not apply to the sale of personal information
45	to or from a consumer reporting agency if that information is to be
46	reported in, or used to generate, a consumer report as defined by subdi-
47	vision (d) of Section 1681(a) of Title 15 of the United States Code, and
48	use of that information is limited by the federal Fair Credit Reporting
49	Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq.
50	9. (a) A consumer who has suffered a violation of this section may
51	bring an action for statutory damages. A violation of this section shall 52	be deemed to constitute an injury in fact to the consumer who has
53	suffered the violation, and the consumer need not suffer a loss of money
54	or property as a result of the violation in order to bring an action for
55	a violation of this section.

(b)(1) Any consumer who suffers an injury in fact, as described in 1 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, shall recover statutory damages in 2 the amount of one thousand dollars or actual damages, whichever is 3 4 greater, for each violation from the business or person responsible for 5 the violation, except that in the case of a knowing and willful 6 violation by a business or person, an individual shall recover statutory 7 damages of not less than one thousand dollars and not more than three thousand dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater, for each 8 9 violation from the business or person responsible for the violation. 10 (2) In assessing the amount of statutory damages, the court shall 11 consider any one or more of the relevant circumstances presented by any 12 of the parties to the case, including, but not limited to, the following: the nature and seriousness of the misconduct, the number of 13 violations, the persistence of the misconduct, the length of time over 14 15 which the misconduct occurred, the willfulness of the defendant's misconduct, and the defendant's assets, liabilities, and net worth. 16 17 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, whenever a judgment, including any consent judgment, decree, or settlement agreement, is approved by the 18 court in a class action based on a violation of this section, any cy 19 20 pres award, unpaid cash residue, or unclaimed or abandoned class member 21 funds attributable to a violation of this section shall be distributed 22 exclusively to one or more nonprofit organizations to support projects that will benefit the class or similarly situated persons, further the 23 objectives and purposes of the underlying class action or cause of 24 25 action, or promote the law consistent with the objectives and purposes of the underlying class action or cause of action, unless for good cause 26 27 shown the court makes a specific finding that an alternative distrib-28 ution would better serve the public interest or the interests of the 29 class. If not specified in the judgment, the court shall set a date when 30 the parties shall submit a report to the court regarding a plan for the 31 distribution of any moneys pursuant to this subdivision. 32 (d) The remedies provided by this subdivision are cumulative to each 33 other and to the remedies or penalties available under all other laws of 34 the state. 10. (a) Any business or person that violates this section shall be 35 36 liable for a civil penalty in a civil action brought in the name of the 37 people of the state of New York by the attorney general. (b) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any person or busi-38 39 ness that intentionally violates this section may be liable for a civil 40 penalty of up to seven thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. (c) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any civil penalty 41 42 assessed for a violation of this section, and the proceeds of any 43 settlement of an action brought pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdi-44 vision, shall be allocated as follows: 45 (1) twenty percent to the consumer privacy fund, created pursuant to 46 section ninety-nine-m of the state finance law, with the intent to fully 47 offset any costs incurred by the state courts and the attorney general 48 in connection with this section; and 49 (2) eighty percent to the jurisdiction on whose behalf the action 50 leading to the civil penalty was brought. (d) The legislature shall adjust the percentages specified in para-51 52 graph (c) of this subdivision and in subdivision eleven of this section, as necessary to ensure that any civil penalties assessed for a violation 53 54 of this section fully offset any costs incurred by the state courts and the attorney general in connection with this section, including a suffi-55 cient amount to cover any deficit from a prior fiscal year. The legisla-56

1	ture shall not direct a greater percentage of assessed civil penalties
2	to the consumer privacy fund than reasonably necessary to fully offset
3	any costs incurred by the state courts and the attorney general in
4	connection with this section.
5	11. (a) Any person who becomes aware, based on non-public information,
6	that a person or business has violated this section may file a civil
7	action for civil penalties pursuant to subdivision ten of this section,
8	if prior to filing such action, the person files with the attorney
9	general a written request for the attorney general to commence the 10	action. The request shall include a clear and concise statement of the 11	grounds for believing a cause of action exists. The person shall make
12	the non-public information available to the attorney general upon
13	request.
14	(1) If the attorney general files suit within ninety days from receipt
15	of the written request to commence the action, no other action may be
16	brought unless the action brought by the attorney general is dismissed
17	without prejudice.
18	(2) If the attorney general does not file suit within ninety days from
19	receipt of the written request to commence the action, the person
20	requesting the action may proceed to file a civil action.
21	(3) The time period within which a civil action shall be commenced
22	shall be tolled from the date of receipt by the attorney general of the 23	written request to either the date that the civil action is dismissed
24	without prejudice, or for one hundred fifty days, whichever is later,
25	but only for a civil action brought by the person who requested the 26	attorney general to commence the action.
27	(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (c) of subdivision ten of this section,
28	if a judgment is entered against the defendant or defendants in an
29 30	action brought pursuant to this subdivision, or the matter is settled, amounts received as civil penalties or pursuant to a settlement of the
31	action shall be allocated as follows:
32	(1) If the action was brought by the attorney general upon a request
33	made by a person pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the 34	person who made the request shall be entitled to fifteen percent of the 35	civil penalties, and the remaining proceeds shall be deposited in the
36	consumer privacy fund pursuant to section ninety-nine-m of the state
37	finance law.
38	(2) If the action was brought by the person who made the request
39	pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, that person shall receive 40	an amount the court determines is reasonable for collecting the civil 41	penalties on behalf of the government. The amount shall be not less than 42	twenty-five percent and not more than fifty percent of the proceeds of 43	the action and shall be paid out of the proceeds. The remaining proceeds
44	shall be deposited in the consumer privacy fund pursuant to section
45	ninety-nine-m of the state finance law.
46	(c) For purposes of this section, "non-public information" means
47	information that has not been disclosed in a criminal, civil, or admin-
48	istrative proceeding, in a government investigation, report, or audit,
49	or by the news media or other public source of information, and that was
50	not obtained in violation of the law.
51	12. A business that suffers a breach of the security of the system
52	involving consumers' personal information shall be deemed to have
53	violated this section and may be held liable for such violation or 54	violations under subdivisions nine, ten and eleven of this section, if
55	the business has failed to implement and maintain reasonable security

procedures and practices, appropriate to the nature of the information, 1 2 to protect the personal information from unauthorized disclosure. 3 13. This section is intended to further the constitutional right of 4 privacy and to supplement existing laws relating to consumers' personal 5 information. The provisions of this section are not limited to informa-6 tion collected electronically or over the internet, but apply to the 7 collection and sale of all personal information collected by a business 8 from consumers. Wherever possible, existing law relating to consumers' 9 personal information should be construed to harmonize with the 10 provisions of this section, but in the event of conflict between exist-11 ing law and the provisions of this section, the provisions of the law 12 that afford the greatest protection for the right of privacy for consum-13 ers shall control. 14. Nothing in this section shall prevent a city, county, city and 14 15 county, municipality, or local agency from safeguarding the constitutional right of privacy by imposing additional requirements on busi-16 17 nesses regarding the collection and sale of consumers' personal information by businesses provided that the requirement does not prevent a 18 person or business from complying with this section. 19 20 15. (a) The attorney general shall adopt regulations in the following 21 areas to further the purposes of this section: 22 (1) Adding additional categories to those enumerated in paragraph (c) of subdivision six and paragraph (m) of subdivision one of this section 23 in order to address changes in technology, data collection practices, 24 25 obstacles to implementation, and privacy concerns. In addition, upon receipt of a request made by a city attorney or district attorney to add 26 27 a new category or categories, the attorney general shall promulgate a 28 regulation to add such category or categories unless the attorney general concludes, based on factual or legal findings, that there is a 29 30 compelling reason not to add the category or categories. The attorney general may also add additional categories to those enumerated in para-31 32 graph (c) of subdivision six and paragraph (m) of subdivision one of 33 this section in response to a petition filed; 34 (2) Adding additional items to the definition of "unique identifiers" 35 to address changes in technology, data collection, obstacles to imple-36 mentation, and privacy concerns, and additional categories to the definition of "designated methods for submitting requests" to facilitate a 37 consumer's ability to obtain information from a business pursuant to 38 39 subdivision six of this section; (3) Establishing any exceptions necessary to comply with state or 40 41 federal law; (4) Establishing rules and procedures: (A) to facilitate and govern 42 43 the submission of a request by a consumer, and by an authorized agent of 44 the consumer, to opt out of the sale of personal information pursuant to 45 subparagraph one of paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of this section; 46 (B) to govern a business's compliance with a consumer's opt out request; 47 and (C) for the development and use of a recognizable and uniform opt 48 out logo or button by all businesses to promote consumer awareness of 49 the opportunity to opt out of the sale of personal information; 50 (5) Adjusting the monetary threshold in clause (A) of subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of subdivision one of this section in January of every 51 52 odd-numbered year to reflect any increase in the Consumer Price Index; (6) Establishing rules, procedures, and any exceptions necessary to 53 54 ensure that the notices and information that businesses are required to provide pursuant to this section are provided in a manner so as to be 55 56 easily understood by the average consumer, are accessible to consumers with disabilities, and are available in the language primarily used to 2	interact with the consumer;

3	(7) Establishing rules and procedures to further the purposes of
4	subdivisions two and three of this section and to facilitate a consum-
5	er's or the consumer's authorized agent's ability to obtain information
6	pursuant to subdivision six of this section, with the goal of minimizing
7	the administrative burden on consumers, taking into account available
8	technology, security concerns, and the burden on the business, to govern
9	a business's determination that a request for information received by a
10	consumer is a verifiable request, including treating a request submitted
11	through a password protected account maintained by the consumer with the 12	business while the consumer is logged into the account as a verifiable
13	request and providing a mechanism for a consumer who does not maintain
14	an account with the business to request information through the busi-
15	ness's authentication of the consumer's identity;
16	(8) Defining the term "valuable consideration" as used in subparagraph
17	one of paragraph (g) of subdivision one of this section to ensure that a
18	business that discloses, except as permitted by this section, a consum-
19	er's personal information to a third party, including through a series
20	of transactions involving multiple third parties, in exchange for any
21	economic benefit is subject to this section, and to include business
22	practices involving the disclosure of personal information in exchange
23	for something of value. Valuable consideration does not include the
24	exchange of value in a transaction involving non-commercial speech, such 25	as journalism and political speech; and
26	(9) Further interpret the terms "de-identified", "sell", "third
27	party", and "business purpose" as set forth in subdivision one of this 28	section, to address changes in technology, data collection, obstacles to 29	implementation, and privacy concerns and to ensure compliance with the 30	purposes of this section, provided that such regulations do not reduce 31	consumer privacy or the ability of consumers to stop the sale of their
32	personal information.
33	(b) The attorney general shall be precluded from adopting regulations
34	that limit or reduce the number or scope of categories of personal
35	information enumerated in paragraph (c) of subdivision six and paragraph
