IN ASSEMBLY

February 16, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. DURSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to requiring individuals arrested in connection with certain felonies to submit a DNA sample

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 995 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7-a to read as follows:

7-a. "Felony arrestee" means a person arrested and charged with any one or more of the following felonies, or an attempt thereof where such attempt is a felony offense, as defined in sections 130.25, 130.30, 130.35, 130.40, 130.45, 130.50, 130.53, 130.65, 130.66, 130.67, 130.70, 130.75, 130.80, 130.95 and 130.96 of the penal law, relating to sex offenses; and the victim is less than thirteen years old.

9 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 995-c of the executive law is amended by 10 adding four new paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) to read as follows:

(c) A felony arrestee shall be required to provide a sample appropriate for DNA testing upon his or her arrest, unless such felony arrestee has previously provided a sample that is included in the state DNA identification index.

15 (d) A public servant to whose custody a designated offender or felony 16 arrestee who has not yet provided a DNA sample has been committed shall 17 seek an order of the court to collect such sample if the offender, after 18 written or oral request, refuses to provide such sample.

19 (e) The detention, arrest, indictment or conviction of a person based 20 upon DNA records contained in the state DNA identification index shall 21 not be invalidated if it is later determined that the division of crimi-

22 nal justice services inadvertently, but in good faith, collected or 23 placed the person's DNA sample in the index.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (f) The commissioner of criminal justice services shall promulgate 2 rules and regulations governing the periodic review of the DNA identifi-3 cation index to determine whether or not the index contains DNA profiles 4 that should not be in the index, including the steps necessary to 5 expunge any profiles which the division of criminal justice services 6 determines should not be in the index.

7 § 3. Subdivision 9 of section 995-c of the executive law, as amended 8 by chapter 524 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

9 9. (a) Upon receipt of notification of a reversal or a vacatur of a 10 conviction, or of the granting of a pardon pursuant to article two-A of 11 this chapter, of an individual whose DNA record has been stored in the 12 state DNA identification index in accordance with this article by the division of criminal justice services, the DNA record shall be expunged 13 from the state DNA identification index, and such individual may apply 14 15 to the court in which the judgment of conviction was originally entered for an order directing the expungement of any DNA record and any 16 17 samples, analyses, or other documents relating to the DNA testing of such individual in connection with the investigation or prosecution of 18 19 the crime which resulted in the conviction that was reversed or vacated 20 or for which the pardon was granted. A copy of such application shall be 21 served on the district attorney and an order directing expungement may 22 be granted if the court finds that all appeals relating to the conviction have been concluded; that such individual will not be 23 retried, or, if a retrial has occurred, the trier of fact has rendered a 24 25 verdict of complete acquittal, and that expungement will not adversely 26 affect the investigation or prosecution of some other person or persons 27 for the crime. The division shall, by rule or regulation, prescribe 28 procedures to ensure that the DNA record in the state DNA identification index, and any samples, analyses, or other documents relating to such 29 30 record, whether in the possession of the division, or any law enforcement or police agency, or any forensic DNA laboratory, including any 31 32 duplicates or copies thereof, at the discretion of the possessor there-33 of, are either destroyed or returned to such individual, or to the 34 attorney who represented him or her at the time such reversal, vacatur 35 or pardon, was granted. The commissioner shall also adopt by rule and 36 regulation a procedure for the expungement in other appropriate circum-37 stances of DNA records contained in the index.

38 (b) As prescribed in this paragraph, if an individual, either volun-39 tarily, pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision three of this section, 40 or pursuant to a warrant or order of a court, has provided a sample for DNA testing in connection with the investigation, arrest or prosecution 41 42 of a crime and (i) no criminal action against the individual relating to 43 such crime was commenced within the period specified by section 30.10 of 44 the criminal procedure law, or (ii) a criminal action was commenced against the individual relating to such crime which resulted in a 45 46 complete acquittal, or (iii) a criminal action was commenced against the 47 individual relating to such crime [regulted in a conviction that was 48 subsequently reversed or vacated, or for which the individual was granted a pardon pursuant to article two-A of this chapter, such individual 49 may apply to the supreme court or the court in which the judgment of 50 conviction was originally entered for an order directing the expungement 51 52 of any DNA record and any samples, analyses, or other documents relating to the DNA testing of such individual in connection with the investi-53 54 gation or prosecution of such crime. A copy of such application shall be served on the district attorney and an order directing expungement may 55 56 be granted if the court finds that the individual has satisfied the

Upon the arraignment of a defendant whose court attendance has been 11 secured by the issuance and service of a summons, based upon an indict-12 ment, a prosecutor's information or upon an information, felony complaint or misdemeanor complaint filed by a complainant who is a 13 14 police officer, the court must, if an offense charged in the accusatory 15 instrument is one specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this title, direct that the defendant be fingerprinted by the appropriate 16 police officer or agency, and that he or she appear at an appropriate 17 designated time and place for such purpose. If an offense charged in the accusatory instrument is one specified in subdivision seven-a of 18 19 20 section nine hundred ninety-five of the executive law, the court must 21 direct that a sample appropriate for DNA testing be taken, and that he 22 or she appear at an appropriate designated time and place for such 23 purpose. 2. Upon the arraignment of a defendant whose court attendance has been 24 25 secured by the issuance and service of a summons based upon an information or misdemeanor complaint filed by a complainant who is not a police 26 27 officer, and who has not previously been fingerprinted or from whom a 28 DNA sample has not previously been taken and was required pursuant to 29 section nine hundred ninety-five-c of the executive law, the court may, 30 if it finds reasonable cause to believe that the defendant has committed 31 an offense specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this title, 32 direct that the defendant be fingerprinted and/or have a sample appro-33 priate for DNA testing taken, if required by section nine hundred nine-34 ty-five-c of the executive law, by the appropriate police officer or agency and that he appear at an appropriate designated time and place 35 36 for such purpose. A defendant whose court appearance has been secured by 37 the issuance and service of a criminal summons based upon a misdemeanor complaint or information filed by a complainant who is not a police 38 39 officer, must be directed by the court, upon conviction of the defendant, to be fingerprinted and have a sample appropriate for DNA testing 40 taken, if required by section nine hundred ninety-five-c of the execu-41 tive law, by the appropriate police officer or agency and the court must 42 43 also direct that the defendant appear at an appropriate designated time 44 and place for such purpose, if the defendant is convicted of any offense 45 specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this title. 46 § 6. Subdivision 5 of section 140.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 47 amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as 48 follows: 49 5. Before service of an appearance ticket upon an arrested person pursuant to subdivision two or three of this section, the issuing police 50 51 officer must, if the offense designated in such appearance ticket is one 52 of those specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this title, cause such person to be fingerprinted and have a sample appropriate for 53 54 DNA testing taken, if required by section nine hundred ninety-five-c of the executive law, in the same manner as would be required were no 55 56 appearance ticket to be issued or served.

§ 7. Subdivision 2 of section 140.27 of the criminal procedure law, as 1 amended by section 21 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, 2 is 3 amended to read as follows: 2. Upon arresting a person without a warrant, a peace officer, except 4 5 as otherwise provided in subdivision three or three-a of this section, 6 must without unnecessary delay bring him or cause him to be brought 7 before a local criminal court, as provided in section 100.55 and subdivision one of section 140.20 of this title, and must without unnecessary 8 9 delay file or cause to be filed therewith an appropriate accusatory 10 instrument. If the offense which is the subject of the arrest is one of 11 those specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this title, the 12 arrested person must be fingerprinted and photographed, and have a sample appropriate for DNA testing taken if required by section nine 13 14 hundred ninety-five-c of the executive law, as therein provided. In 15 order to execute the required post-arrest functions, such arresting peace officer may perform such functions himself or he may enlist the 16 17 aid of a police officer for the performance thereof in the manner provided in subdivision one of section 140.20 of this article. 18 19 § 8. Section 150.70 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows: 20 21 § 150.70 Appearance ticket; fingerprinting and DNA analysis sample of 22 defendant. 23 Upon the arraignment of a defendant who has not been arrested and 24 whose court attendance has been secured by the issuance and service of 25 an appearance ticket pursuant to subdivision one of section 150.20 of this article, the court must, if an offense charged in the accusatory 26 27 instrument is one specified in subdivision one of section 160.10 of this 28 title, direct that the defendant be fingerprinted and have a sample appropriate for DNA testing taken when required by section nine hundred 29 30 ninety-five-c of the executive law by the appropriate police officer or 31 agency, and that he appear at an appropriate designated time and place 32 for such purpose. 33 § 9. Section 160.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chap-34 ter 108 of the laws of 1973, is amended to read as follows: 35 160.20 Fingerprinting and DNA analysis sample; forwarding of finger-3 36 prints and DNA analysis sample. 37 1. Upon the taking of fingerprints of an arrested person or defendant as prescribed in section 160.10 of this article, the appropriate police 38 officer or agency must without unnecessary delay forward two copies of 39 40 such fingerprints to the division of criminal justice services. 2. Upon taking a sample appropriate for DNA testing, the appropriate 41 42 police office or agency must without unnecessary delay store and forward 43 such DNA sample to a forensic DNA laboratory for forensic DNA testing 44 and analyses, and inclusion in the state DNA identification index in accordance with subdivision five of section nine hundred ninety-five-c 45 46 of the executive law. 47 § 10. Paragraphs (d) and (e) of subdivision 1 of section 160.50 of the 48 criminal procedure law, paragraph (d) as amended by chapter 449 of the 49 laws of 2015 and paragraph (e) as amended by chapter 169 of the laws of 50 1994, are amended and a new paragraph (f) is added to read as follows: 51 (d) such records shall be made available to the person accused or to 52 such person's designated agent, and shall be made available to (i) a 53 prosecutor in any proceeding in which the accused has moved for an order pursuant to section 170.56 or 210.46 of this [chapter] part, or (ii) a 54 law enforcement agency upon ex parte motion in any superior court, or in 55 56 any district court, city court or the criminal court of the city of New
