Introduced by M. of A. STIRPE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing the green building credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subsection (ooo) to read as follows:

3 (ooo) Green building credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall 4 be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article provided 5 that such taxpayer constructs or rehabilitates qualifying residential 6 real property in conformity with energy efficiency standards established
7 by the National Association of Home Builders or the Leadership in Energy
8 and Environmental Design rating system developed by the United States 9 green building council and fashions proof thereof in accordance with 10 rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner of the department 11 of environmental conservation in conjunction with the commissioner.

12 (2) Amount of credit. The amount of the credit shall be equal to the 13 allowable costs paid or incurred by the taxpayer, if the owner, for 14 either the construction or rehabilitation of qualifying residential real 15 property in conformity with energy efficiency standards established by 16 the National Association of Home Builders or the Leadership in Energy
17 and Environmental Design rating system developed by the United States
18 green building council; provided, however, that such credit shall not 19 exceed ten thousand dollars and shall not be awarded more than once in a 20 period of ten years.

21 (3) For the purpose of this subsection, "allowable costs" means 22 amounts properly chargeable to an account (other than for land), which 23 are paid or incurred on or after January first, two thousand twenty-24 four, for: construction or rehabilitation; commissioning costs; inter-25 est paid or incurred during the construction or rehabilitation period;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets

1 legal, architectural, engineering and other professional fees allocable
2 to construction or rehabilitation; closing costs for construction, reha-
3 bilitation or mortgage loans; recording taxes and filing fees incurred 4 with respect to construction or rehabilitation; site costs (such as 5 temporary electric wiring, scaffolding, demolition costs, and fencing
6 and security facilities); and costs of furniture, carpeting, partitions, 7 walls and wall coverings, ceilings, drapes, blinds, lighting, plumbing,
8 electrical wiring and ventilation; provided that such costs shall not 9 include the cost of telephone systems and computers (other than elec-10 trical wiring costs) and shall not include the cost of fuel cells or 11 photovoltaic modules (including installation) or the cost of new air
12 conditioning equipment using an EPA-approved non-ozone depleting refri-13 gerant or other EPA-approved refrigerant approved by the commissioner of 14 environmental conservation (excluding installation).

15 (4) For the purposes of this subsection "qualifying residential real 16 property" shall mean the principal place of residence of an individual 17 taxpayer who claims a credit pursuant to this subsection. In the event 18 that such place of residence is a multiple dwelling, as defined by 19 subdivision seven of section four of the multiple dwelling law, allow-20 able costs shall only constitute those costs incurred due to 21 construction or rehabilitation undertaken on the portion of the dwelling 22 that constitutes an individual taxpayer's unit.

23 (5) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any 24 taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess 25 may be carried over to the following year or years for up to five years 26 and may be deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.

27 (6) The commissioner of the department of environmental conservation, 28 in conjunction with the commissioner, shall promulgate such rules and 29 regulations as may be necessary for the distribution of the credit 30 established by this subsection.

31 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 32 years beginning on and after January 1, 2025.
