IN ASSEMBLY

February 17, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. ZEBROWSKI, L. ROSENTHAL, THIELE, STECK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT directing the department of public service to prepare a written report on the affordability of utility services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. In response to the 2 COVID-19 pandemic, chapters 108 and 126 of the laws of 2020 were adopted
3 to ensure that New Yorkers would not be deprived of gas, electric, water 4 service, helping households follow the vital state policy of "sheltering 5 in place." The moratorium prohibited termination of utility services at 6 a pivotal moment when it became evident that sanitary conditions were 7 required to combat the COVID-19 virus and keep New Yorkers safe and 8 healthy, especially seniors and the medically vulnerable. The legisla-9 ture finds and declares that it is unknown to the state the number of 10 New Yorkers who had their services terminated or disconnected during the 11 pandemic. The legislature finds that many utility customers rely on 12 continuous service for heat, water, and electricity to power necessary
13 equipment, such as life-saving health care devices and other New Yorkers 14 require cooling during extreme heat conditions and heat during extreme 15 cold conditions, particularly when congregate care cooling and heating 16 facilities are not safe for use by medically vulnerable households. The 17 legislature finds that the state requires comprehensive data concerning 18 New Yorkers' ability to afford utility service, including the number of 19 New Yorkers who had their services terminated or who are currently at 20 risk of termination during the pandemic. The legislature finds that this 21 data is critical to ascertain the effectiveness of the moratorium and 22 other COVID-19 consumer protections, as well as the disruptive effects 23 that the pandemic has had on utility customers' finances, and utility 24 finances and services, and the public health, safety and welfare of 1 millions of medically and financially vulnerable citizens. The legisla-

2 ture also finds that the permanent collection and reporting of utility 3 data is imperative to gain regular updates on and evaluate trends
4 concerning the scale and extent of terminations and utility debt across 5 the state, so that evidence-based policy can be properly crafted there-6 after.

15 sion, in a form and manner determined by the commission, the information

23 provide the required data in an alternative format.

33 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-34 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 35 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 36 invalid provisions had not been included herein.
