AN ACT to amend the general business law, the correction law and the state finance law, in relation to establishing pricing restrictions for certain contracts involving care package vendors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 2 396-~~mmm~~ to read as follows:

3 § 396-~~mmm~~. Pricing restrictions; care package vendors. 1. For the 4 purposes of this section:

5 (a) "Care package vendor" shall mean a mail-order business or tele-
6 phone order business as such terms are defined in section three hundred 7 ninety-six-m of this chapter that is primarily engaged in the sollicita-8 tion of orders by advertisement or otherwise for merchandise to be 9 shipped to an incarcerated individual housed in a correctional facility
10 pursuant to a contract with the department of corrections and community 11 supervision or a state or local correctional facility.

12 (b) "Accepts orders" shall mean, in the case of a mail order, receipt 13 of an order with payment or with charge account authorization remitted
14 through the mail, electronic mail or the Internet, and, in the case of a 15 telephone order, receipt of an order with charge account authorization 16 and debiting the buyer's account.

17 2. No person, partnership, firm, association or corporation or agent 18 or employee thereof who conducts a care package vendor business shall 19 sell or offer to sell any merchandise, or accept any order for merchan-20 dise, for an amount which exceeds the price of the same or substantially 21 similar merchandise sold in the commissary or canteen of the correction-
22 al facility in which the incarcerated individual to whom such merchan-23 dise is to be shipped is housed, plus the actual cost of shipping such 24 merchandise to such incarcerated individual.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD08631-01-3

1 3. It shall be unlawful for any person, partnership, firm, association
2 or corporation or agent or employee thereof who conducts a care package 3 vendor business to demand or accept any payment, fee, or charge from an 4 incarcerated individual or other purchaser for any amount other than the 5 price authorized pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

6 4. Any contract or agreement purporting to waive or modify the pricing 7 restrictions set forth in this section shall be void as contrary to 8 public policy.

9 § 2. Section 112 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 10 subdivision 6 to read as follows:

11 6. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations requiring 12 that every procurement contract with a care package vendor as defined in 13 section three hundred ninety-six-mmm of the general business law shall 14 contain a provision prohibiting such care package vendor from charging 15 any price for its merchandise in excess of the amounts authorized by 16 subdivision two of section three hundred ninety-six-mmm of the general 17 business law. The commissioner shall monitor and enforce compliance with 18 this subdivision.

19 § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 165-b to 20 read as follows:

21 § 165-b. Purchasing restrictions; correctional facilities. The depart-22 ment of corrections and community supervision and any state or local 23 correctional facility, as defined in section two of the correction law, 24 shall not enter into a contract with a care package vendor, as defined 25 in section three hundred ninety-six-mmm of the general business law, 26 unless such contract requires compliance with the pricing restrictions 27 set forth in subdivisions two and three of section three hundred nine-28 ty-six-mmm of the general business law in accordance with the provisions 29 of subdivision six of section one hundred twelve of the correction law.

30 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 31 contracts entered into on and after such date.
