AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to expanding access to advanced courses to improve educational equity

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 817 to read as follows:

§ 817. Expanding access to advanced courses to improve educational equity. 1. Definitions. As used in this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. "Advanced course" means as follows: (i) in middle school, any course that leads to a high school level regents examination or any honors, gifted, or accelerated course; and (ii) in high school, any honors, gifted, accelerated, advanced placement, international baccalaureate, dual or concurrent enrollment course or program, work-based learning opportunities, apprenticeships, and courses or examinations for which a student may earn college credit or an industry-recognized certification.

b. "Parent" means a parent, legal guardian, or person in parental relation to a student.

2. Providing transparency and support for parents and students. a. Starting with the two thousand twenty-four--two thousand twenty-five school year, each school district and charter school shall annually provide notification to parents and students of the benefits and the opportunities within the district or charter school of participating in advanced courses.

b. For students in grades five through six, such notification shall include:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
