AN ACT to amend the legislative law, in relation to bills containing provisions requiring appointments to be made by the legislative leaders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The legislative law is amended by adding a new section 52-a to read as follows:

§ 52-a. Requirements with respect to bills containing provisions requiring appointments to be made by the legislature. 1. For purposes of this section, the term "legislative leaders" shall mean the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly.

2. Any bill which establishes a commission, task force, board, council, or similar body, and which requires that a number of the members on such commission, task force, board, council, or similar body receive their appointments from the legislature, shall have not less than one member appointed by each of the legislative leaders.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
