56 169 of the laws of 1994, the section heading and opening paragraph of subdivision 1 as amended by section 1 and subdivision 2 as amended by section 3 of part J of chapter 56 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 131-u. Domestic violence services. 1. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, ~~[a social services district]~~ the department shall, in accordance with the provisions of this section and regulations of the department, ~~[offer and provide emergency shelter and services at a residential program]~~ ensure that residential and non-residential services and care are sufficiently available and accessible in every county of the state for victims of domestic violence, as defined in article six-A of this chapter~~[, to the extent that such shelter and services are necessary and available to a victim of domestic violence, as defined in article six-A of this chapter, and in need of emergency shelter and services, who was residing in the social services district at the time of the alleged domestic violence]~~ and their minor children.

2. ~~[The department shall annually establish, subject to the approval of the director of the budget, a daily rate of reimbursement for each residential program for victims of domestic violence, as defined in article six-A of this chapter, certified by the department which provides emergency shelter and services to persons eligible for such emergency shelter and services pursuant to this section. A social services district financially responsible for a victim of domestic violence shall reimburse a residential program for victims of domestic violence for the costs of emergency shelter and services provided to such victim at the daily reimbursement rate established by the department reduced by any other reimbursement available for such costs]~~ Subject to the approval of the director of the budget, the commissioner is hereby authorized to enter into contracts with domestic violence organizations, as defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of this chapter, to provide state financial assistance to support the provisions of domestic violence residential and non-residential services and care for victims of domestic violence and their minor children.

3. The state financial assistance shall be in the form of grants.

4. The commissioner shall require that, in order to receive funds pursuant to this article, domestic violence organizations, as defined in article six-A of this chapter, shall submit an operating plan. Such plan shall include:

(a) the manner in which the operating expenses of the program shall be met;

(b) the services that will be provided to victims of domestic violence; and

(c) evidence demonstrating that services will be offered in a manner that complies with existing local, state and federal laws and regulations.

5. Each contract entered into for the provision of services for victims of domestic violence and their children, pursuant to this article, shall be subject to the approval of the director of the budget and shall provide for payment to the not-for-profit domestic violence organization pursuant to a payment schedule. The full amount of the contract or contracts, or any appropriate portion thereof, as determined by the commissioner and subject to the approval of the director of the budget, shall be available for payment at any time on or after the effective date of such contract.

§ 9. This act shall take effect immediately.
