(b) An agency shall not deny a request on the basis that the request is voluminous or that locating or reviewing the requested record or records or providing the requested copies is burdensome because the agency lacks sufficient staffing or on any other basis if the agency may engage an outside professional service to provide copying, programming or other services required to provide the copy, the costs of which the agency may recover pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section eighty-seven of this article.

(c) An agency may require a person requesting lists of names and addresses to provide a written certification that such person will not use such lists of names of natural persons and residential addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes and will not sell, give or otherwise make available such lists of names and addresses to any other person for the purpose of allowing that person to use such lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes.

(d) If [an agency determines to grant a request in whole or in part, and if] circumstances prevent an agency from notifying the person requesting the record or records of the agency's determination regarding the rights of access and disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the agency shall state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to [grant the request] do so within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when [the request will be granted in whole or in part] a determination regarding disclosure will be rendered.

(e) Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or that such record cannot be found after diligent search.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any entity to [prepare] create any record not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified in subdivision three of section eightyseven and subdivision three of section eighty-eight of this article. When an agency has the ability to retrieve or extract a record or data maintained in a computer storage system with reasonable effort, it shall be required to do so. When doing so requires less employee time than engaging in manual retrieval or redactions from non-electronic records, the agency shall be required to retrieve or extract such record or data electronically. [Any programming necessary to retrieve] The retrieval of a record maintained in a computer storage system and [to] the transfer of that record to the medium requested by a person or to a medium that would allow the transferred record to be read or printed shall not be deemed to be the [preparation or] creation of a new record.

[(b)] (g) All entities shall, provided such entity has reasonable means available, accept requests for records submitted in the form of electronic mail and shall respond to such requests by electronic mail, using forms, to the extent practicable, consistent with the form or forms developed by the committee on open government pursuant to subdivision one of this section and provided that the written requests do not seek a response in some other form.

 $[\frac{(e)}{h}]$ Each state agency, as defined in subdivision five of this section, that maintains a website shall ensure its website provides for the online submission of a request for records pursuant to this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
