2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 24, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. GOODELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the public officers law and the legislative law, in relation to the appointment process for state board positions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 39 of the public officers law, as amended by chapter 122 of the laws of 1947, is amended to read as follows:

2 § 39. Filling vacancies in office of officer appointed by governor and 3 senate. A vacancy which shall occur during the session of the senate, in 4 the office of an officer appointed by the governor by and with the 5 advice and consent of the senate, shall be filled in the same manner as 6 an original appointment. Such a vacancy occurring or existing while the 7 senate is not in session, including offices in which officers are holding 8 over pursuant to the provisions of section five of this chapter or 9 any other law, and offices vacant during the session of the senate, 10 shall be filled by the governor for a term which shall expire upon the 11 appointment and qualification of a successor but in any event such term 12 shall expire at the end of twenty days from the commencement of the next 13 meeting of the senate. There shall be a sixty-day notice period before 14 any nominee is officially appointed and confirmed to a vacant position 15 pursuant to this section, during which time the legislature may contract 16 with an independent private investigator or private investigation firm 17 pursuant to sections six and seven of the legislative law to conduct an 18 investigation and create a report on such nominee containing the results 19 of such investigation, which shall be made available to the appropriate 20 committee and all members of the legislature.

21 § 2. Section 40 of the public officers law is amended to read as 22 follows:

23 § 40. Vacancy occurring in office of legislative appointee, during 24 legislative recess. When a vacancy shall occur or exist, otherwise than

1 by expiration of term, during the recess of the legislature, in the 2 office of any officer appointed by the legislature, the governor shall 3 appoint a person to fill the vacancy for a term which shall expire at 4 the end of twenty days from the commencement of the next meeting of the 5 legislature. There shall be a sixty-day notice period before any nominee 6 is officially appointed and confirmed to a vacant position pursuant to 7 this section, during which time the legislature may contract with an 8 independent private investigator or private investigation firm pursuant 9 to sections six and seven of the legislative law to conduct an investi-10 gation and create a report on such nominee containing the results of 11 such investigation, which shall be made available to the appropriate 12 committee and all members of the legislature.

13 § 3. Section 41 of the public officers law, as amended by chapter 91
14 of the laws of 1928, is amended to read as follows:

15 § 41. Vacancies filled by legislature. When a vacancy occurs or 16 exists, other than by removal, in the office of comptroller or attor-17 ney-general, or a resignation of either such officer to take effect at 18 any future day shall have been made while the legislature is in session, 19 the two houses thereof, by joint ballot, shall appoint a person to fill 20 such actual or prospective vacancy. There shall be a sixty-day notice 21 period before any nominee is officially appointed and confirmed to a 22 vacant position pursuant to this section, during which time the legisla-23 ture may contract with an independent private investigator or private 24 investigation firm pursuant to sections six and seven of the legislative 25 law to conduct an investigation and create a report on such nominee
26 containing the results of such investigation, which shall be made avail-27 able to the appropriate committee and all members of the legislature.

28 § 4. Section 43 of the public officers law, as renumbered by chapter
29 649 of the laws of 1922, is amended to read as follows:

30 § 43. Filling other vacancies. If a vacancy shall occur, otherwise 31 than by expiration of term, with no provision of law for filling the 32 same, if the office be elective, the governor shall appoint a person to 33 execute the duties thereof until the vacancy shall be filled by an 34 election. But if the term of such officer shall expire with the calendar 35 year in which the appointment shall be made, or if the office be appoin-36 tive, the appointee shall hold for the residue of the term. There shall 37 be a sixty-day notice period before any nominee is officially appointed 38 and confirmed to a vacant position pursuant to this section, during 39 which time the legislature may contract with an independent private 40 investigator or private investigation firm pursuant to sections six and 41 seven of the legislative law to conduct an investigation and create a 42 report on such nominee containing the results of such investigation, 43 which shall be made available to the appropriate committee and all 44 members of the legislature.

45 § 5. Section 6 of the legislative law is amended by adding a new 46 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

47 9. (a) An appropriation shall be made for and the temporary president 48 of the senate and the minority leader of the senate shall, in conjunc-49 tion with each other, contract with an independent private investigator 50 or private investigation firm to conduct a background check on a poten-51 tial nominee before being appointed to a vacant position pursuant to 52 sections thirty-nine, forty, forty-one and forty-three of the public 53 officers law. Once a nominee has been named, such nomination shall be 54 submitted to the journal clerk of the senate. Once the journal clerk has 55 received such nomination, he or she shall forward such nomination to the

1 appropriate committee related to the position such nominee is being
2 appointed to for review.

3 (b) Once the journal clerk has forwarded the nomination to the appro-
4 priate committee, the sixty-day period referenced pursuant to sections
5 thirty-nine, forty, forty-one and forty-three of the public officers law
6 shall begin. A private investigator or private investigation firm shall 7 then complete their investigation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this 8 subdivision within thirty days and shall submit such report to the 9 appropriate committee and shall make such report available to all 10 members of the senate. The committee, as well as the members of the 11 senate shall then have thirty days to review such report and make any 12 objections or hold any hearings, as necessary, before such nominee is 13 confirmed to such vacant position.

14 § 6. Section 7 of the legislative law, as amended by chapter 506 of 15 the laws of 1960, the closing paragraph as added by chapter 141 of the 16 laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

17 § 7. Officers and employees of the assembly. 1. The assembly may 18 choose a clerk, a sergeant-at-arms and a stenographer. When an appropri-19 ation has been made for the services, temporary or otherwise, of offi-20 cers and employees of the assembly and their appointment is not other-21 wise authorized by law, the speaker of the assembly may appoint such 22 officers and employees and fix their compensation, respectively, within 23 the amount provided by appropriation. The majority leader of the assem-24 bly may appoint a counsel to majority leader, an assistant counsel to 25 majority leader, a secretary to majority leader, and a clerk to majority 26 leader. The minority leader of the assembly may appoint a counsel to 27 minority leader, a clerk to minority, an assistant clerk to minority, a 28 secretary to minority leader, a clerk to minority leader, an assistant 29 clerk to minority leader, a ways and means minority clerk, two stenogra-30 phers, a clerk-chauffeur and a messenger to minority. In case of the 31 death or resignation of the clerk of the assembly, or his inability to 32 exercise the powers and/or discharge the duties of said office, notwith-33 standing any other provisions of law the speaker of the assembly shall 34 appoint an acting clerk or designate the assistant clerk as acting clerk 35 to serve until a clerk is chosen by the assembly to fill the vacancy or 36 until the disability shall cease. The acting clerk so appointed or 37 designated as such shall have and exercise all of the powers of the 38 clerk of the assembly until a clerk has been chosen and has qualified or 39 until the disability shall cease.

40 2. Whenever the speaker of the assembly is authorized or required, 41 singly or jointly, to certify or approve warrants or vouchers for the 42 compensation of any person, it shall be sufficient if he execute the 43 first such warrant or voucher, and thereafter the same may be certified 44 or approved by his designee or designees, so long as the rate of such 45 compensation is not increased, and upon proof by affidavit or otherwise 46 that the same is due. Such designation shall be in writing and filed in 47 the office of the speaker and in the office of the comptroller, and 48 shall remain in effect during the term of office of the speaker unless 49 sooner revoked by him.

50 3. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the speaker of the assem-51 bly or his or her designee may authorize expenditures to be made from 52 appropriations or reappropriations made to the assembly ways and means 53 committee, or the allocable portion of an appropriation or reappropri-54 ation so made to a legislative council, commission or task force the 55 expenditures from which are for assembly purposes in whole or in alloca-56 ble part. The speaker of the assembly may effect such authorization by

1 filing his or her approval of such authorization with the state comp-2 troller.

3 4. (a) An appropriation shall be made for and the speaker of the 4 assembly and the minority leader of the assembly shall, in conjunction 5 with each other, contract with an independent private investigator or 6 private investigation firm to conduct a background check on a potential 7 nominee before being appointed to a vacant position pursuant to sections 8 thirty-nine, forty, forty-one and forty-three of the public officers
9 law. Once a nominee has been named, such nomination shall be submitted 10 to the journal clerk of the assembly. Once the journal clerk has 11 received such nomination, he or she shall forward such nomination to the 12 appropriate committee related to the position such nominee is being 13 appointed to for review.

14 (b) Once the journal clerk has forwarded the nomination to the appro-
15 priate committee, the sixty-day period referenced pursuant to sections
16 thirty-nine, forty, forty-one and forty-three of the public officers law
17 shall begin. A private investigator or private investigation firm shall 18 then complete their investigation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this 19 subdivision within thirty days and shall submit such report to the 20 appropriate committee and shall make such report available to all 21 members of the assembly. The committee, as well as the members of the 22 assembly shall then have thirty days to review such report and make any 23 objections or hold any hearings, as necessary, before such nominee is 24 confirmed to such vacant position.

25 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
