AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to enforcement of fair housing

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 298-b
2 to read as follows:

3 § 298-b. Enforcement relating to the conduct of owners, agents,
4 employees and others involved in the sale or rental of housing. If the 5 commissioner finds that a violation of subdivision two-a, subdivision
6 three-b or subdivision five of section two hundred ninety-six of this 7 article has occurred, the commissioner shall issue an order which shall 8 do one or more of the following:

9 1. award compensatory damages to the person aggrieved by such 10 violation;

11 2. to vindicate the public interest, assess a civil penalty: (i) in an 12 amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars if the respondent has 13 not been adjudged to have committed any prior discriminatory housing 14 practice; (ii) in an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars if the 15 respondent has been adjudged to have committed one other discriminatory 16 practice during the five-year period prior to the date of the filing of 17 the complaint; and (iii) in an amount not exceeding seventy-five thou-
18 sand dollars if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed two 19 or more discriminatory housing practices during the seven-year period 20 prior to the date of the filing of the complaint, except that if the 21 acts constituting the discriminatory practice that is the object of the 22 complaint are committed by the same natural person who has been previ-
23 ously adjudged to have committed acts constituting a discriminatory
24 housing practice, then the civil penalties set forth in subparagraphs

(ii) and (iii) of this paragraph may be imposed without regard to the period of time within which any subsequent discriminatory practice occurred. Any civil penalty imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall not limit the award of damages or other relief available at law or in equity to the person aggrieved by such violation;

3. require the respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful discriminatory practices;

4. award punitive damages to the person aggrieved by such violation;

5. grant such other relief the commissioner deems just and equitable.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of section 298 of the executive law is designated subdivision 1 and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:

2. In an action filed by the attorney general pursuant to subdivision twelve of section sixty-three of this chapter, in addition to any other available relief, a court may, to vindicate the public interest, assess a civil penalty against the respondent in an amount that does not exceed the following:

(a) If the defendant is a natural person, (i) fifty thousand dollars for a first violation, and (ii) one hundred thousand dollars for a second or subsequent violation.

(b) If the defendant is a corporate entity, (i) one hundred thousand dollars for a first violation and (ii) two hundred fifty thousand dollars for a second or subsequent violation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
