district officers and the polls shall remain open for the receipt thereof at all elections of fire district officers from six o'clock in the [~~evening~~] morning until nine o'clock in the evening [~~and such additional consecutive hours prior thereto as the board of fire commissioners of such district may have determined and specified in the notice thereof. The board of fire commissioners shall designate a resident fire district elector, who shall be a registered voter of the town, to act as chairman of any election of said district and shall designate not less than two nor more than four resident fire district electors, who shall be registered voters of the town to act as election inspectors and ballot clerks at such elections. No elective officer of the fire district shall serve as such chairman or as an election inspector or ballot clerk. The board of fire commissioners may adopt a resolution providing that such chairman, election inspectors and ballot clerks shall be paid for their respective services at any such annual election or at any special election of the fire district. Such resolution, if adopted, shall fix the amount of such compensation, as follows: if the hours during which the polls will be open for the receipt of ballots are from six o'clock in the evening until nine o'clock in the evening, a sum not to exceed seventy dollars for each such official; if additional consecutive hours prior to six o'clock in the evening are determined and specified in the notice of election, a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars for each such official~~]. The method and manner of submission, preparation and provision of ballots and ballot labels, use of voting machines, qualifications of voters, correcting registers, and conducting the election, canvassing the result and making and filing the returns, and all other procedures with reference to the submission of any vote, shall be in the same method and manner used for voting in the school board election, or as close as is practical, as determined by the county board of elections provided, however, that all costs associated with such ballots and any additional poll workers necessary for such vote shall be borne by such fire district. The local board of elections shall appoint such poll workers as deemed necessary by such board and shall prescribe their duties, titles, ranks and salary in accordance with the provision set forth in section 3-300 of the election law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
