AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the restriction of certain substances in menstrual products

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 399-aaaa of the 2 general business law, as added by chapter 362 of the laws of 2019, is 3 amended and three new paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) are added to read as 4 follows:

5 (b) "menstrual product" shall mean products used for the purpose of 6 catching menstruation and vaginal discharge, including but not limited
7 to tampons, pads, and menstrual cups. These products may be either 8 disposable or reusable[-];

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04800-12-4

1 (c) "restricted substance" shall mean an unsafe chemical for inclusion 2 in menstrual products as determined by the commissioner of health, which 3 shall include, but not be limited to, lead, mercury and related 4 compounds, formaldehyde, triclosan, toluene, talc, dibutyl phthalate,
5 di(2)exylhexyl phthalate, butylphenyl methylpropional and isobutyl-,
6 isopropyl-, butyl-, propylparaben, and perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroal-
7 kyl substances;

8 (d) "perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances" shall mean a class
9 of fluorinated organic chemicals containing at least one fully fluori-
10 nated carbon atom;

11 (e) "intentionally added ingredient" shall mean any element or 12 compound that a manufacturer has intentionally added to a menstrual 13 product, and which has a functional or technical effect in the finished 14 product, including, but not limited to, the components of intentionally 15 added fragrance, flavoring and colorants, and the intentional breakdown 16 products of an added element or compound that also has a functional or 17 technical effect on the finished product.

18 § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 399-aaaa of the general business law is 19 renumbered subdivision 5 and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as 20 follows:

21 4. No menstrual products distributed, sold or offered for sale in this 22 state, whether at retail or wholesale, for personal, professional or 23 commercial use, or distributed for promotional purposes, shall contain:

24 (a) as of the effective date, a restricted substance present as an 25 intentionally added ingredient at any level; or

26 (b) as of two years after thresholds are established in regulation,
27 but no later than January first, two thousand twenty-eight, a restricted 28 substance at or above a level that the department of health, in consul-29 tation with the department of environmental conservation, shall estab-30 lish in regulation that is the lowest level that can feasibly be 31 achieved; provided, however, that the department of health and depart-32 ment of environmental conservation shall review such level every five 33 years to determine whether it should be lowered. The commissioner of 34 health shall promulgate regulations establishing these levels no later 35 than a year after the effective date of this section.

36 § 3. This act shall take effect twelve months after it shall have 37 become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment, and/or 38 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 39 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 40 on or before such effective date.
