allowance defined in subdivision b of this section. Effective on the first day of September, two thousand twenty-four, said cost-of-living adjustment shall be computed on a base benefit amount not to exceed twenty-one thousand dollars of the annual retirement allowance defined in subdivision b of this section.

§ 4. Subdivision c of section 13-696 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by chapter 125 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

c. Said cost-of-living adjustment shall be computed on a base benefit amount not to exceed eighteen thousand dollars of the annual fixed retirement allowance defined in subdivision b of this section. Effective on the first day of September, two thousand twenty-four, said cost-of-living adjustment shall be computed on a base benefit amount not to exceed twenty-one thousand dollars of the annual retirement allowance defined in subdivision b of this section.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would amend subdivision c of Section 532-a of the Education Law to apply the cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) percentage to a base benefit amount not to exceed $21,000 of annual retirement benefit. The current cap on the annual base benefit amount for COLA purposes is $18,000. This benefit improvement would be effective in September 2024.

The annual cost to the employers of members of the New York State Teachers' Retirement System for this benefit is estimated to be $78.6 million or .43% of payroll if this bill is enacted.

Member data is from the System's most recent actuarial valuation files, consisting of data provided by the employers to the Retirement System. Data distributions and statistics can be found in the System's Annual Report. System assets are as reported in the System's financial statements and can also be found in the System's Annual Report. Actuarial assumptions and methods are provided in the System's Actuarial Valuation Report.
