IN ASSEMBLY

January 10, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, in relation to mandatory training of a forensic evaluator in relation to court ordered forensic evaluations involving child custody and visitation when the child is living out-of-state; to amend the executive law, in relation to training in the prevention and intervention of domestic violence required for forensic investigators; and to amend a chapter of the laws of 2022 amending the domestic relations law and the executive law, relating to court ordered forensic evaluations involving child custody and visitation, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 6385-B and A. 2375-C, relating to the effectiveness thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a-3) of subdivision 1 of section 240 of the domestic relations law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2022 amending the domestic relations law and the executive law, relating to court ordered forensic evaluations involving child custody and visitation, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 6385-B and A. 2375-C, is amended by adding a new subparagraph 5 to read as follows:

(5) A court shall appoint a forensic evaluator who has completed the training program pursuant to paragraph (o) of subdivision three of section five hundred seventy-five of the executive law when the child is living out-of-state and is farther than one hundred miles from the New York state border; provided, however, that such forensic custody evaluation may be conducted remotely utilizing videoconferencing technology. The evaluator must take all steps reasonably available to protect the confidentiality of the child's disclosures for any evaluation conducted remotely utilizing videoconferencing technology, as needed.

§ 2. Paragraph (o) of subdivision 3 of section 575 of the executive law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2022 amending the domestic
