members of such corporation; and to enhance the morale of the volunteer members of such corporation by providing social and recreational activities for the volunteer members of such corporation, and the promotion of the volunteer fire service within the territory protected by the Ocean Beach Volunteer Fire Department.

§ 7. Precept for payment of foreign fire insurance premium taxes. Such corporation shall collect and there shall be paid to it all taxes imposed by section nine thousand one hundred four of the insurance law for fire department use and benefit upon premiums for insurance against loss or damage by fire covering property within the village of Ocean Beach located in Suffolk county, New York. The officers of said corporation designated by its by-laws to collect, and receive the aforesaid tax shall have all the powers and be subject to all the provisions of the insurance law, relating to treasurers of fire departments. Such corporation shall also be entitled to receive a share of the tax distributed pursuant to the provisions of section nine thousand one hundred five of the insurance law, based upon the business written in the territory with respect to which it is entitled to collect and receive the tax under section nine thousand one hundred four of the insurance law. Such taxes shall only be used [~~for the care and relief of disabled or indigent volunteer and exempt volunteer firefighters and their families~~] by the corporation in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in section three of this act.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that the amendments to section 7 of chapter 493 of the laws of 1987 creating the Ocean Beach Volunteer and Exempt Firefighters' Benevolent Association, Incorporated and providing for its powers and duties made by section one of this act shall apply to taxes due on premiums received on and after January 1, 2024.
