2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. CHANDLER-WATERMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to unlawful discriminatory practices based upon delays in reporting workplace sexual harassment, and in relation to extending the statute of limitations in cases before the state division of human rights of sexual harassment in the workplace; and to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to extending the statute of limitations in cases of sexual harassment in the workplace

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "no right time act".

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i) For any employer, labor organization or employment agency to restrict the timeframe during which an employee may bring a sexual harassment claim, unless such restriction is in accordance with the statute of limitations currently provided for in state law or to discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because he or she has delayed in reporting or filing a complaint regarding sexual harassment in the workplace. As used in this paragraph "sexual harassment" means an unlawful discriminatory practice on the basis of sex that is based on unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

§ 3. Subdivision 5 of section 297 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 160 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5. Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within one year after the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice. In cases of sexual harassment in employment, any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within three years after the alleged unlawful
