IN ASSEMBLY

January 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. GIBBS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to commencing a study on the relationship between the corrections system and the child welfare system

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 30 to
2 read as follows:

3 § 30. Incarcerated individual study. 1. The commissioner shall conduct
4 a comprehensive study on incarcerated individuals' prior involvement
5 with child welfare and juvenile systems, including but not limited to:

6 (a) previous placement in out-of-home care, specifying type of place-
7 ment: foster care, kinship foster care, secure detention facilities,
8 non-secure detention facilities, group homes or other authorized agen-
9 cies or facilities operated or licensed by the office of children and 10 family services;

11 (b) the approximate length of such period of placement;

12 (c) the age of the incarcerated individual during such period of 13 placement;

14 (d) the ethnic background of the incarcerated individual; and

15 (e) the incarcerated individual's gender.

16 2. As part of the study the commissioner shall conduct surveys on 17 current incarcerated individuals in state, county, and municipal correc-
18 tional facilities. The survey shall be based on a random sample or 19 other scientifically appropriate sample of not less than ten percent of 20 all state, county, and municipal correctional facilities.

21 3. The commissioner shall ensure the confidentiality of each survey
22 participant by using self-administered questionnaires and other similar 23 survey methods, which will ensure the respondent's anonymity.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

1     4. An incarcerated individual shall be deemed to have given his or her
2 informed consent only if he or she is informed in writing of the poten-
3 tial risks and benefits of the study.

4     5. The commissioner shall make a written report on the relationship
5 between the corrections system and the child welfare system to the 6 governor, temporary president of the senate and speaker of the assembly
7 of its findings, conclusions and recommendations on or before June thir-
8 tieth of the year next succeeding the year in which this subdivision
9 shall take effect.

10     § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 11 have become a law.
