§ 171. Flexible working arrangement. 1. Definitions. a. For the 4 purposes of this section, "flexible working arrangement" shall mean 5 intermediate or long-term changes in the employee's regular working arrangements, including but not limited to, changes in the number of days or hours worked, changes in the time the employee arrives at or departs from work, work from home, or job-sharing. "Flexible working 9 arrangement" shall not include vacation, routine scheduling of shifts, 10 or another form of employee leave.

b. For the purposes of this section, "inconsistent with business oper-11 ations" shall mean a determination by the employer based on the follow-12 13 ing considerations: (i) the burden on an employer of undue additional 14 costs; (ii) a legitimate or practical detrimental effect on aggregate 15 employee morale unrelated to discrimination or other unlawful employment practices; (iii) a legitimate or practical detrimental effect on the 16 ability of an employer to meet consumer demand; (iv) a significant 17 18 inability to reorganize work among existing staff; (v) a legitimate or 19 practical inability to recruit additional staff; (vi) a significant 20 detrimental impact on business quality or business performance; (vii) an 21 insufficiency of work during the periods the employee proposes to work; (viii) planned structural changes to the business; and (ix) any other 22 reasons as specified by the commissioner.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

2. a. An employee may request a flexible working arrangement that 1 meets the needs of both the employer and employee. The employer shall 3 consider and respond to such request pursuant to the provisions of this 4 section.

- b. The employer shall respond to the request for a flexible working arrangement from the employee, and shall consider the employee's request for a flexible working arrangement and whether the request or a similar arrangement could be granted in a manner that is not inconsistent with its business operations or its legal or contractual obligations. An employer may establish reasonable standards to determine the time, place, and manner in which the employer shall discuss the request pursuant to this subdivision.
- c. The employer shall notify the employee of the decision regarding 13 the request in a reasonably timely manner, but in no cases shall such 14 15 decision be provided later than forty-five days from receipt of such a request. If the request was submitted in writing, the employer shall 17 state any complete or partial denial of the request in writing, citing the reason as to denying the request. 18
- 3. This section shall not diminish any employment rights or agreements 19 20 pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement. An employer may institute 21 a flexible working arrangement policy that is more generous than is 22 provided by this section.
  - 4. An employer shall not retaliate against an employee exercising his or her rights under this section.
- 5. Nothing in this section shall affect any legal rights an employer 25 or employee may have under applicable law to create, terminate, or modi-26 27 fy a flexible working arrangement.
- 6. Nothing in this section shall require an employer to accept the 28 flexible work arrangement of the employee. 29
- 30 7. a. The commissioner may bring an action against an employer for failure to adhere to the provisions of this section, including injunc-31 32 tive relief to enjoin future conduct.
- 33 b. Any employer who violates the provisions of this section shall 34 forfeit to the people of the state a sum of five hundred dollars for each violation, to be recovered by the commissioner in any legal action 35 taken pursuant to this subdivision. 36
- 37 8. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations for the implementation of this section. 38
- 39 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 40 it shall have become a law.
