2 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:
3 § 135.50 Custodial interference in the first degree.
4 A person is guilty of custodial interference in the first degree when:
5 [~~he commits~~] 1. they commit the crime of custodial interference in the 6 second degree:
7 [~~1-~~] (a) With intent to permanently remove the victim from this state, 8 [~~he removes~~] they remove such person from the state; or 9 [~~2-~~] (b) Under circumstances which expose the victim to a risk that 10 [~~his~~] their safety will be endangered or [~~his~~] their health materially 11 impaired[~~-~~]; or
12 2. they remove a minor child from the state to obtain custody of said 13 minor child asserting that the minor child has been abused by virtue of 14 the minor child being treated for gender dysphoria or being given gender 15 affirming care under circumstances which are legal within the state.
16 It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution under paragraph 17 (a) of subdivision one of this section that the victim had been aban-18 doned or that the taking was necessary in an emergency to protect the 19 victim because [~~he has~~] they have been subjected to or threatened with 20 mistreatment or abuse. For the purposes of subdivision two of this 21 section, the offer or provision of gender affirming therapy or care, or
