AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to temporarily authorizing certain applicants for licensure as a nurse or physician to practice; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6907-a to read as follows:

§ 6907-a. Temporary authorization. 1. A person who is currently licensed and in good standing in another state or territory to practice as a registered nurse and practicing in New York state as of May twenty-second, two thousand twenty-three pursuant to the state disaster emergency declared by executive order four of two thousand twenty-one, may be temporarily authorized to practice registered professional nursing in the state of New York pending a determination on licensure for which an application has been filed pursuant to section sixty-nine hundred five of this article, provided such applicant has obtained the endorsement of the health care facility, health care program, or health care practice by which he or she was employed pursuant to executive order four of two thousand twenty-one, that is authorized by New York state law to provide professional nursing services and acceptable to the department. Prior to commencing such temporarily authorized practice: (i) the applicant and an authorized representative of the employing facility shall jointly provide written notification to the department, in a form and format acceptable to the department, that such applicant intends to practice in the state of New York pursuant to this subdivision; (ii) the applicant shall pay a fee determined by the department;

1 and (iii) the applicant's name must appear on a list of persons author-
2 ized to temporarily practice registered professional nursing published
3 on the department's website. Such temporary authorization shall expire 4 in one hundred eighty days, or ten days after notification that the 5 applicant does not meet the qualifications for licensure as a registered 6 nurse, whichever shall occur first.

7 2. A person who is currently licensed and in good standing in another
8 state or territory of the United States to practice as a licensed prac-
9 tical nurse and practicing in New York state as of May twenty-second,
10 two thousand twenty-three pursuant to the state disaster emergency 11 declared by executive order four of two thousand twenty-one, may be 12 temporarily authorized to practice licensed practical nursing in the 13 state of New York pending a determination on licensure for which an 14 application has been filed pursuant to section sixty-nine hundred six of 15 this article, provided such applicant has obtained the endorsement of 16 the health care facility, health care program or health care practice by 17 which he or she was employed pursuant to executive order four of two 18 thousand twenty-one, that is authorized by New York state law to 19 provide professional nursing services. Prior to commencing such tempo-20 rarily authorized practice: (i) the applicant and an authorized repre-
21 sentative of the employing facility shall jointly provide written 22 notification to the department, in a form and format acceptable to the 23 department, that such applicant intends to practice in the state of New 24 York pursuant to this subdivision; (ii) the applicant shall pay a fee 25 determined by the department; and (iii) the applicant's name must appear 26 on a list of persons authorized to temporarily practice licensed practi-
27 cal nursing published on the department's website. Such temporary 28 authorization shall expire in one hundred eighty days, or ten days after 29 notification that the applicant does not meet the qualifications for 30 licensure as a licensed practical nurse, whichever shall occur first.

31 3. Any person practicing as a registered nurse or licensed practical 32 nurse in New York state pursuant to this section shall be subject to the 33 personal and subject matter jurisdiction and disciplinary and regulatory 34 authority of the board of regents as if he or she is a licensee and as 35 if the temporary authorization pursuant to this section is a license.
36 Such person shall comply with applicable provisions of this title and 37 the rules of the board of regents relating to professional practice, 38 professional misconduct, disciplinary proceedings and penalties for 39 professional misconduct. Failure to adhere to the notification
40 provisions of this section may be considered unauthorized practice
41 pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twelve of this title.

42 4. Persons eligible for the temporary authorization pursuant to this 43 section shall provide the required written notification and fee to the 44 department within three months of the effective date of this section and 45 shall not be authorized to practice until the applicant's name appears 46 on the lists of persons authorized to temporarily practice published on 47 the department's website.

48 § 2. Subdivision 10 of section 6526 of the education law, as amended 49 by chapter 199 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

50 10. (a) Any physician who is licensed and in good standing in another 51 state or territory, and who has a written agreement to provide medical 52 services to athletes and team personnel of a United States sports team
53 recognized by the United States Olympic committee or an out-of-state 54 secondary school, institution of postsecondary education, or profes-
55 sional athletic organization sports team, may provide medical services 56 to such athletes and team personnel at a discrete sanctioned team sporting event in this state as defined by the commissioner in regulations, provided such services are provided only to such athletes and team personnel at the discrete sanctioned team sporting event. Any such medical services shall be provided only five days before through three days after each discrete sanctioned team sporting event.

(b) A person who is currently licensed and in good standing in another state or territory to practice as a physician and practicing in New York state as of May twenty-second, two thousand twenty-three pursuant to the state disaster emergency declared by executive order four of two thousand twenty-one, may be temporarily authorized to practice medicine in the state of New York under the supervision of a New York state licensed and registered physician, pending a determination on licensure for which an application has been filed pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twenty-four of this article, provided such applicant: has obtained the endorsement of an employing health care facility, health care program, or health care practice that is authorized by New York state law to provide medical services and acceptable to the department; has graduated from a duly accredited school of medicine located in the United States or Canada; and is currently board certified by a physician certification board acceptable to the department. Prior to commencing temporarily authorized practice: (i) the applicant and supervising physician shall jointly provide written notification to the department, in a form and format acceptable to the department, that such applicant intends to practice in the state of New York pursuant to this subdivision; (ii) the applicant shall pay a fee determined by the department; and (iii) the applicant's name must appear on a list of persons authorized to temporarily practice medicine published on the department's website. Such temporary authorization shall expire in one hundred eighty days or ten days after notification that the applicant does not meet the qualifications for licensure as a physician, whichever shall occur first. Persons eligible for the temporary authorization pursuant to this paragraph shall provide the required written notification and fee to the department within three months of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this subdivision and shall not be authorized to practice until the applicant's name appears on the lists of persons authorized to temporarily practice published on the department's website.

(c) Any person practicing as a physician in New York state pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the personal and subject matter jurisdiction and disciplinary and regulatory authority of the board of regents and the state board for professional medical conduct established pursuant to section two hundred thirty of the public health law as if he or she is a licensee and as if the exemption pursuant to this subdivision is a license. Such individual shall comply with applicable provisions of this title, the public health law, the rules of the board of regents, the state board for professional medical conduct established pursuant to section two hundred thirty of the public health law, and the regulations of the commissioner and the commissioner of health, relating to professional misconduct, disciplinary proceedings and penalties for professional misconduct. Failure to adhere to the notification provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision may be considered unauthorized practice pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twelve of this title.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed one year after it shall have become a law.
