Introduced by M. of A. LEE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring disclosure of certain social media terms of service

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 42 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 42

SOCIAL MEDIA TERMS OF SERVICE

Section 1100. Definitions.

1101. Required disclosure of terms of service.

1102. Terms of service report.

1103. Violations and remedies.

1104. Application.

§ 1100. Definitions. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

1. "Actioned" means a social media company, that due to a suspected or confirmed violation of the terms of service, has taken some form of action, including, but not limited to, removal, demonetization, deprioritization, or banning, against the relevant user or relevant item of content.

2. "Content" means statements or comments made by users and media that are created, posted, shared, or otherwise interacted with by users on an internet-based service or application. "Content" does not include media put on a service or application exclusively for the purpose of cloud storage, transmitting files, or file collaboration.

3. "Public or semipublic internet-based service or application" excludes a service or application used to facilitate communication within a business or enterprise among employees or affiliates of the business or enterprise, provided that access to the service or application

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 is restricted to employees or affiliates of the business or enterprise 2 using the service or application.

3 4. "Social media company" means a person or entity that owns or oper-4 ates one or more social media platforms.

5 5. "Social media platform" means a public or semipublic internet-based 6 service or application that has users in New York and that meets both of 7 the following criteria:

8 (a) A substantial function of the service or application is to connect 9 users in order to allow users to interact socially with each other with-10 in the service or application. A service or application that provides 11 email or direct messaging services shall not be considered to meet this 12 criterion on the basis of that function alone.

13 (b) The service or application allows users to do all of the follow-14 ing:

15 (i) construct a public or semipublic profile for purposes of signing 16 into and using the service or application;

17 (ii) populate a list of other users with whom an individual shares a 18 social connection within the system; and 19 (iii) create or post content viewable by other users, including, but 20 not limited to, on message boards, in chat rooms, or through a landing 21 page or main feed that presents the user with content generated by other 22 users.

23 6. "Terms of service" means a policy or set of policies adopted by a 24 social media company that specifies, at least, the user behavior and 25 activities that are permitted on the internet-based service owned or 26 operated by the social media company, and the user behavior and activ-27 ities that may subject the user or an item of content to being actioned.

28 § 1101. Required disclosure of terms of service. 1. A social media 29 company shall post terms of service for each social media platform owned 30 or operated by the company in a manner reasonably designed to inform all 31 users of the social media platform of the existence and contents of the 32 terms of service.

33 2. The terms of service posted pursuant to subdivision one of this 34 section shall include all of the following:

35 (a) contact information for the purpose of allowing users to ask the 36 social media company questions about the terms of service;

37 (b) a description of the process that users must follow to flag 38 content, groups, or other users that they believe violate the terms of 39 service, and the social media company's commitments on response and 40 resolution time; and

41 (c) a list of potential actions the social media company may take 42 against an item of content or a user, including, but not limited to, 43 removal, demonetization, deprioritization, or banning.

44 3. The terms of service posted pursuant to subdivision one of this 45 section shall be available in the twelve most common non-English 46 languages spoken by limited-English proficient individuals in the state, 47 as outlined in section two hundred two-a of the executive law, in which 48 the social media platform offers product features, including, but not 49 limited to, menus and prompts.

50 § 1102. Terms of service report. 1. On a semiannual basis in accord-51 ance with subdivision two of this section, a social media company shall 52 submit to the attorney general a terms of service report. The terms of 53 service report shall include, for each social media platform owned or 54 operated by the company, all of the following:

55 (a) The current version of the terms of service of the social media 56 platform.

1 (b) If a social media company has filed its first report, a complete 2 and detailed description of any changes to the terms of service since 3 the previous report.

4 (c) A statement of whether the current version of the terms of service 5 defines each of the following categories of content, and, if so, the 6 definitions of those categories, including any subcategories:

7 (i) hate speech or racism;

8 (ii) extremism or radicalization;

9 (iii) disinformation or misinformation;

10 (iv) harassment; and/or

11 (v) foreign political interference.

12 (d) A detailed description of content moderation practices used by the 13 social media company for that platform, including, but not limited to, 14 all of the following:

15 (i) any existing policies intended to address the categories of 16 content described in paragraph (c) of this subdivision;

17 (ii) how automated content moderation systems enforce terms of service 18 of the social media platform and when these systems involve human 19 review;

20 (iii) how the social media company responds to user reports of 21 violations of the terms of service;

22 (iv) how the social media company would remove individual pieces of 23 content, users, or groups that violate the terms of service, or take 24 broader action against individual users or against groups of users that 25 violate the terms of service; and 26 (v) the languages in which the social media platform does not make 27 terms of service available, but does offer product features, including, 28 but not limited to, menus and prompts.

29 (e) (i) Information on content that was flagged by the social media 30 company as content belonging to any of the categories described in para-31 graph (c) of this subdivision, including all of the following:

32 (A) the total number of flagged items of content;

33 (B) the total number of actioned items of content;

34 (C) the total number of actioned items of content that resulted in 35 action taken by the social media company against the user or group of 36 users responsible for the content;

37 (D) the total number of actioned items of content that were removed, 38 demonetized, or deprioritized by the social media company;

39 (E) the number of times actioned items of content were viewed by 40 users;

41 (F) the number of times actioned items of content were shared, and the 42 number of users that viewed the content before it was actioned; and

43 (G) the number of times users appealed social media company actions 44 taken on that platform and the number of reversals of social media 45 company actions on appeal disaggregated by each type of action.

46 (ii) All information required by subparagraph (i) of this paragraph 47 shall be disaggregated into the following categories:

48 (A) the category of content, including any relevant categories 49 described in paragraph (c) of this subdivision;

50 (B) the type of content, including, but not limited to, posts, 51 comments, messages, profiles of users, or groups of users;

52 (C) the type of media of the content, including, but not limited to, 53 text, images, and videos;

54 (D) how the content was flagged, including, but not limited to, 55 flagged by company employees or contractors, flagged by artificial

1 intelligence software, flagged by community moderators, flagged by civil 2 society partners, and flagged by users; and

3 (E) how the content was actioned, including, but not limited to, 4 actioned by company employees or contractors, actioned by artificial 5 intelligence software, actioned by community moderators, actioned by 6 civil society partners, and actioned by users.

7 2. (a) A social media company shall electronically submit a semiannual 8 terms of service report pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 9 covering activity within the third and fourth quarters of the preceding 10 calendar year, to the attorney general no later than April first of each 11 year, and shall electronically submit a semiannual terms of service 12 report pursuant to subdivision one of this section, covering activity 13 within the first and second quarters of the current calendar year, to 14 the attorney general no later than October first of each year.

15 (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a social media 16 company shall electronically submit its first terms of service report 17 pursuant to subdivision one of this section, covering activity within 18 the third quarter of two thousand twenty-four, to the attorney general 19 no later than January first, two thousand twenty-five, and shall elec-20 tronically submit its second terms of service report pursuant to subdi-21 vision one of this section, covering activity within the fourth quarter 22 of two thousand twenty-four, to the attorney general no later than April 23 first, two thousand twenty-five. A social media platform shall submit 24 its third report no later than October first, two thousand twenty-five, 25 in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

26 3. The attorney general shall make all terms of service reports 27 submitted pursuant to this section available to the public in a searcha-28 ble repository on its official internet website.

29 § 1103. Violations and remedies. 1. (a) A social media company that 30 violates the provisions of this article shall be liable for a civil 31 penalty not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars per violation per day, 32 and may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction.

33 (b) A social media company shall be considered in violation of the 34 provisions of this article for each day the social media company does 35 any of the following:

36 (i) fails to post terms of service in accordance with section eleven 37 hundred two of this article;

38 (ii) fails to timely submit to the attorney general a report required 39 pursuant to section eleven hundred two of this article; or 40 (iii) materially omits or misrepresents required information in a 41 report submitted pursuant to section eleven hundred two of this article.

42 (c) In assessing the amount of a civil penalty pursuant to paragraph 43 (a) of this subdivision, the court shall consider whether the social 44 media company has made a reasonable, good faith attempt to comply with 45 the provisions of this article.

46 2. Actions for relief pursuant to this article shall be prosecuted 47 exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction by the attorney general 48 in the name of the people of the state of New York, or a city corpo-49 ration counsel on behalf of a locality upon their own complaint or upon 50 the complaint of a board, officer, person, corporation, or association.

51 3. If an action pursuant to this section is brought by the attorney 52 general, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasur-53 er of the county in which the judgment was entered, and one-half of the 54 penalty collected shall be paid to the general fund established by 55 section seventy-two of the state finance law. If the action is brought 1 by a city corporation counsel, the penalty collected shall be paid to 2 the city in which the judgment was entered.

3 § 1104. Application. This article shall not apply to a social media 4 company that generated less than one hundred million dollars in gross 5 revenue during the preceding calendar year or to an internet-based 6 service or application for which interactions between users are limited 7 to direct messages, commercial transactions, consumer reviews of 8 products, sellers, services, events, or places, or any combination ther-9 eof.

10 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 11 it shall have become a law.
