AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to a refugee resettlement program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and 2 declares the following:
- 3 a. Under federal law 8 U.S.C. §1101 (a) (42), a refugee is a person 4 who is forced to flee their country of origin or last habitation due to 5 persecution, or a well-founded fear of persecution, based upon their 6 race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or 7 political opinion;
- 8 b. At the end of 2022, there were 108.4 million forcibly displaced 9 people in the world, 35.3 million of which were refugees. This is more
10 than double the recorded number in 2010, and the highest it has ever 11 been;
- 12 c. Around two-thirds of refugees live in poverty, and many are unable 13 to return to their home countries due to the lack of imminent solutions
14 to conflicts, recurrent violence, and political instability;
- 15 d. Less than 1 percent of refugees will ever be resettled to a safe 16 third country, enabling them to rebuild their lives in safety and 17 contribute to the cultural and economic fabric of a new home nation;
- 18 e. Recognizing the importance of refugee resettlement, the United 19 States created the Refugee Act of 1980;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

g. As of 2021, New York State resettled the third most refugees in the country;

h. On September 19, 2016, the United Nations General Assembly unanimously adopted the New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants, which reaffirms the importance of the international refugee regime and contains a wide range of commitments to strengthen and enhance mechanisms to protect these individuals;

i. Research from reputable sources including the Fiscal Policy Institute, Urban Institute, Pew Research Center, and New American Economy find a positive economic and social impact of refugees across New York State;

j. Governor Kathy Hochul reaffirmed New York State's commitment to helping refugees on August 19, 2021 by welcoming those fleeing Afghanistan;

k. The Statue of Liberty, a national monument and icon of freedom that has been welcoming immigrants from across the world to New York State since 1886, states, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!";

l. The State of New York has been proud to partner with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services in assisting and resettling refugees from USRAP through its Bureau of Refugee Services, which is housed within the Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance;

m. The legislature hereby affirms, with this act, its continued commitment to resettle refugees through the United States Refugee Admissions Program within the boundaries of this state for as long as individuals around the world are displaced from their home countries.
