2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

May 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. PHEFFER AMATO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law and the family court act, in relation to the prosecution of certain juveniles charged with certain felony crimes and the handling of such cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 722.23 of the criminal procedure law, as added by 2 section 1-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to 3 read as follows:
4 § 722.23 Removal of adolescent offenders to family court.
5 1. (a) Following the arraignment of a defendant charged with a crime
6 committed when he or she was sixteen[7] or [~~commencing October first,~~ 7 ~~two thousand nineteen,~~] seventeen years of age, other than any class A 8 felony except for those defined in article two hundred twenty of the 9 penal law, a violent felony defined in section 70.02 of the penal law or 10 a felony listed in paragraph one or two of subdivision forty-two of 11 section 1.20 of this chapter, a felony in violation of article two 12 hundred sixty-five of the penal law, or an offense set forth in the 13 vehicle and traffic law, the court shall order the removal of the action 14 to the family court in accordance with the applicable provisions of 15 article seven hundred twenty-five of this title unless, within thirty 16 calendar days of such arraignment, the district attorney makes a motion 17 to prevent removal of the action pursuant to this subdivision. If the 18 defendant fails to report to the probation department as directed, the 19 thirty day time period shall be tolled until such time as he or she 20 reports to the probation department.
21 (b) A motion to prevent removal of an action in youth part shall be 22 made in writing and upon prompt notice to the defendant. The motion 23 shall contain allegations of sworn fact based upon personal knowledge of

1 the affiant, and shall indicate if the district attorney is requesting a 2 hearing. The motion shall be noticed to be heard promptly.

3 (c) The defendant shall be given an opportunity to reply. The defend-4 ant shall be granted any reasonable request for a delay. Either party 5 may request a hearing on the facts alleged in the motion to prevent 6 removal of the action. The hearing shall be held expeditiously.

7 (d) The court shall deny the motion to prevent removal of the action 8 in youth part unless the court makes a determination upon such motion by 9 the district attorney that extraordinary circumstances exist that should 10 prevent the transfer of the action to family court.

11 (e) The court shall make a determination in writing or on the record 12 within five days of the conclusion of the hearing or submission by the 13 defense, whichever is later. Such determination shall include findings 14 of fact and to the extent practicable conclusions of law.

15 (f) For the purposes of this section, there shall be a presumption 16 against custody and case planning services shall be made available to 17 the defendant.

18 (g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, section 308.1 of the 19 family court act shall apply to all actions transferred pursuant to this 20 section provided, however, such cases shall not be considered removals 21 subject to subdivision thirteen of such section 308.1.

22 (h) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude, and a court may order, 23 the removal of an action to family court where all parties agree or 24 pursuant to this chapter.

25 2. (a) Upon the arraignment of a defendant charged with a crime
26 committed when he or she was sixteen or [~~commencing October first, two~~ 27 ~~thousand nineteen,~~] seventeen years of age on a class A felony, other 28 than those defined in article [220] two hundred twenty of the penal law, 29 [~~or~~] a violent felony defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, or a 30 felony in violation of article two hundred sixty-five of the penal law, 31 the court shall schedule an appearance no later than six calendar days 32 from such arraignment for the purpose of reviewing the accusatory 33 instrument pursuant to this subdivision. The court shall notify the 34 district attorney and defendant regarding the purpose of such appear-35 ance.

36 (b) Upon such appearance, the court shall review the accusatory 37 instrument and any other relevant facts for the purpose of [~~making a~~ 38 ~~determination~~] determining whether to remove the action to the family 39 court pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision. Both parties may be 40 heard and submit information relevant to the determination.

41 [~~The court shall order the action to proceed in accordance with~~ 42 ~~subdivision one of this section unless, after reviewing the papers and~~ 43 ~~hearing from the parties, the court determines in writing that~~] Other 44 than any class A felony except for those defined in article two hundred 45 twenty of the penal law, a violent felony defined in section 70.02 of 46 the penal law, a felony listed in paragraph one or two of subdivision 47 forty-two of section 1.20 of this chapter, a felony in violation of 48 article two hundred sixty-five of the penal law, or an offense set forth 49 in the vehicle and traffic law, the court may, but shall not be required 50 to, order removal after considering the criteria specified in subdivi-51 sion two of section 722.22 of this article; provided, however, that the 52 court shall not order removal if the district attorney proved by a 53 preponderance of the evidence one or more of the following as set forth 54 in the accusatory instrument:

55 (i) the defendant caused or actively participated in a crime that 56 caused significant physical injury to a person other than a participant

1 in the offense or a crime in accordance with accessorial conduct as 2 defined in section 20.00 of the penal law or actively participated in a 3 crime through accessorial conduct as defined in section 20.00 of the 4 penal law; or

5 (ii) the defendant [~~displayed~~] possessed a firearm, shotgun, rifle or 6 deadly weapon as defined in the penal law [~~in furtherance of such~~ 7 ~~offense~~] or possessed what appeared to be a firearm, shotgun, rifle or 8 deadly weapon as defined in the penal law, or actively participated in a 9 crime where a co-defendant possessed a firearm, shotgun, rifle or deadly 10 weapon as defined in the penal law or where a co-defendant possessed 11 what appears to be a firearm, shotgun, rifle or deadly weapon as defined 12 in the penal law; or

13 (iii) the defendant unlawfully engaged in sexual intercourse, oral 14 sexual conduct, anal sexual conduct or sexual contact as defined in 15 section 130.00 of the penal law.

16 (d) Where the court makes a determination that the action shall not 17 proceed in accordance with subdivision one of this section, such deter-18 mination shall be made in writing or on the record and shall include 19 findings of fact and to the extent practicable conclusions of law.

20 (e) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude, and the court may 21 order, the removal of an action to family court where all parties agree 22 or pursuant to this chapter.

23 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, if at any time one 24 or more charges in the accusatory instrument are reduced, such that the 25 elements of the highest remaining charge would be removable pursuant to 26 subdivisions one or two of this section, then the court, sua sponte or 27 in response to a motion pursuant to subdivisions one or two of this 28 section by the defendant, shall promptly notify the parties and direct 29 that the matter proceed in accordance with subdivision one of this 30 section, provided, however, that in such instance, the district attorney 31 must file any motion to prevent removal within thirty days of effecting 32 or receiving notice of such reduction.

33 4. A defendant may waive review of the accusatory instrument by the 34 court and the opportunity for removal in accordance with this section, 35 provided that such waiver is made by the defendant knowingly, voluntar-36 ily and in open court, in the presence of and with the approval of his 37 or her counsel and the court. An earlier waiver shall not constitute a 38 waiver of review and the opportunity for removal under this section.

39 § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 722.21 of the criminal procedure law, as 40 added by section 1-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is 41 amended to read as follows:

42 5. Notwithstanding subdivisions two and three of this section, at the 43 request of the district attorney, the court shall order removal of an 44 action against an adolescent offender charged with an offense listed in 45 paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section 722.23 of this article, to 46 the family court pursuant to the provisions of article seven hundred 47 twenty-five of this title and upon consideration of the criteria speci-48 fied in subdivision two of section 722.22 of this article, it is deter-
49 mined that to do so would be in the interests of justice. Where, howev-50 er, the felony complaint charges the adolescent offender with murder in 51 the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law, rape in 52 the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the 53 penal law, criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in subdivi-54 sion one of section 130.50 of the penal law, or an armed felony as 55 defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision forty-one of section 1.20 of 56 this chapter, a determination that such action be removed to the family

1 court shall, in addition, be based upon a finding of one or more of the 2 following factors: (i) mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon 3 the manner in which the crime was committed; or (ii) where the defendant 4 was not the sole participant in the crime, the defendant's participation 5 was relatively minor although not so minor as to constitute a defense to 6 the prosecution; or (iii) possible deficiencies in proof of the crime.

7 In determining whether an action be removed to the family court, the 8 court may also consider the factors provided for in subdivision two of 9 section 722.22 of this article.

10 § 3. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 2 of section 722.22 of the 11 criminal procedure law, as added by section 1-a of part WWW of chapter 12 59 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as follows:

13 (h) where the court deems it appropriate, the attitude of the 14 complainant or victim with respect to the motion; ~~and~~

15 (i) any other pending charges against the individual;

16 (j) whether the individual was an active participant in the crime or 17 whether the individual is liable through accessorial conduct as defined 18 in section 20.00 of the penal law;

19 (k) any other relevant fact indicating that a judgment of conviction 20 in the criminal court would serve no useful purpose; and 21 (l) any other factor the court deems relevant to its determination.

22 § 4. Section 381.1 of the family court act, as added by chapter 920 of 23 the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

24 § 381.1. Transfer of records and information to institutions and agen-
25 cies. 1. Whenever a person is placed with an institution suitable for 26 placement of a person adjudicated a juvenile delinquent maintained by 27 the state or any subdivision thereof or to an authorized agency includ-28 ing the division for youth, the family court placing such person shall 29 forthwith transmit a copy of the orders of the family court pursuant to 30 sections 352.1 and 352.2 of this article and of the probation report and 31 all other relevant evaluative records in the possession of the family 32 court and probation department related to such person, including but not 33 limited to any diagnostic, educational, medical, psychological and 34 psychiatric records with respect to such person to such institution or 35 agency, notwithstanding any contrary provision of law.

36 2. For any defendant appearing before the youth part of the superior 37 court, the family court shall, upon request of the youth part judge, 38 forward a copy of all previous family court records created under this 39 article relating to such defendant in order to assist the youth part's 40 determination as to whether to remove a case to family court, including, 41 notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, whether the case was 42 sealed pursuant to subdivision one of section 375.1 of this article 43 based on a disposition defined in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), 44 (g), (h), or (i) of subdivision two of section 375.1 of this article.
45 Such records shall include any records created by probation services in 46 accordance with section 308.1 of this article. The chief administrator 47 of the unified court system shall create an electronic sharing mechanism 48 to ensure secure, timely, and efficient access between the family court 49 and youth part, as well as to the prosecutor on the youth part case, and 50 the defense.

51 3. Whenever a person subject to this act has been arrested, the family 52 court shall promptly make any and all previous family court records 53 created under this article related to that person available to the 54 probation services for the purpose of determining whether the person is 55 eligible for adjustment services, including, notwithstanding any contra-56 ry provision of law, whether the case was sealed pursuant to subdivision

1 one of section 375.1 of this article based on a disposition defined in 2 paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of subdivision two 3 of section 375.1 of this article. An electronic sharing mechanism shall 4 be created between the family court and probation services to ensure 5 secure, timely, and efficient access to such records.

6 § 5. Section 381.3 of the family court act, as added by chapter 920 of 7 the laws of 1982, paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 8 926 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

9 § 381.3. Use of police records. 1. All police records relating to the 10 arrest and disposition of any person under this article shall be kept in 11 files separate and apart from the arrests of adults and shall be with-12 held from public inspection. For purposes of this section, "public 13 inspection" shall not mean a presentment agency in family court, a law 14 enforcement agency responsible for the subject criminal investigation, 15 probation services, or any agency designated in subdivision two of 16 section 720.35 of the criminal procedure act.

17 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 18 the family court in the county in which the petition was adjudicated 19 may, upon motion and for good cause shown, order [~~such~~] any and all 20 previous family court records open:

21 (a) to the respondent or his parent or person responsible for his 22 care; or

23 (b) if the respondent is subsequently convicted of a crime, to a judge 24 of the court in which he was convicted, unless such record has been 25 sealed pursuant to section 375.1 of this article, except for a disposi-26 tion defined in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of 27 subdivision two of section 375.1 of this article.

28 3. An order issued under subdivision two of this section must be in 29 writing.

30 § 6. Section 302.2 of the family court act, as amended by section 2 of 31 subpart E of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to 32 read as follows:

33 § 302.2. Statute of limitations. 1. A juvenile delinquency proceeding 34 charging the respondent with a crime allegedly committed when such 35 respondent was under the age of sixteen must be commenced within the 36 period of limitation prescribed in section 30.10 of the criminal proce-37 dure law or, unless the alleged act is a designated felony as defined in 38 subdivision eight of section 301.2 of this part or is an act allegedly 39 committed when the respondent was aged sixteen years or older, commenced 40 before the respondent's eighteenth birthday, whichever occurs earlier, 41 provided however, that consistent with subdivision four of section 302.1 42 of this part, a proceeding commenced for an act allegedly committed when 43 the respondent was aged sixteen years or older shall be considered time-44 ly if it is commenced within such period of limitation prescribed in 45 section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law or prior to the respondent's 46 twentieth birthday, whichever occurs earlier, regardless of whether the 47 action had originally been commenced prior to the respondent's eigh-48 teenth birthday in a youth part of a superior court. When the alleged 49 act constitutes a designated felony as defined in subdivision eight of 50 section 301.2 of this part or is an act allegedly committed when the 51 respondent was aged sixteen years or older, such proceeding must be 52 commenced within such period of limitation prescribed in section 30.10 53 of the criminal procedure law or before the respondent's twentieth 54 birthday, whichever occurs earlier.

55 2. A juvenile delinquency proceeding charging the respondent with a 56 crime allegedly committed when such respondent was age sixteen years or

1 older must be commenced within the period of limitation prescribed in 2 section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law or, unless the alleged act 3 is a designated felony as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 4 of this part, commenced before the respondent's twentieth birthday, 5 whichever occurs earlier. When the alleged act constitutes a designated 6 felony as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 of this part, 7 such proceeding must be commenced within the period of limitation 8 prescribed in section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law or before the 9 respondent's twenty-second birthday, whichever occurs earlier.

10 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
