AN ACT to amend the military law, in relation to the existing special eligible list for public employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 243 of the military law, as amended by chapter 616 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:

7. Status of existing lists. Any person whose name is on any eligible list shall, while in military duty, retain [~~his~~] the rights and status on such list. If the name of any such person is reached for certification during [~~his~~] military duty, it shall be placed on a special eligible list in the order of [~~his~~] original standing, provided [~~he~~] the person makes request therefor following termination of [~~his~~] military duty and during the period of [~~his~~] eligibility on such list. Such list shall be certified before certification shall be made from a subsequent open competitive or promotion eligible list for the same position or from the original eligible list for such position. [~~Such names shall remain on such special eligible list for a period of two years after the termination of such military duty.~~] Upon being placed upon such special eligible list, the governmental agency or subdivision shall notify such person, in writing, that their name will remain on the list for two years after the termination of such military duty, and that unless such person makes a request to be placed and remain upon such list during this two year period, their name will be removed. Any such person thus appointed shall, for the purpose of computing seniority credit and training and experience credit for promotion and date of membership in the retirement system and seniority in the event of suspension or demotion, be deemed to have been appointed on the earliest date upon which any eligible, who was the lower on such original eligible list,
