2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

May 17, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. McDONOUGH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT in relation to authorizing the New York state and local employees' retirement system to accept an application for disability retirement benefits from Andrew Reilly, Jr.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary,
2 the application for disability retirement benefits of Andrew Reilly,
3 Jr., who was employed as a clerk for the town of Hempstead Sanitation
4 District 1 and a member of the New York state and local employees'
5 retirement system from March 1995 until October 15, 2020, suffered a
6 stroke on February 20, 2020 and who, for reasons not ascribable to his
7 own negligence, did not apply to the New York state and local employees'
8 retirement system for disability retirement benefits because of the 9 COVID-19, novel coronavirus state of emergency, shall be deemed to have 10 applied to the New York state and local employees' retirement system for 11 disability retirement benefits within 30 days of his disability on 12 February 20, 2020.

13 § 2. All costs associated with the implementation of this act shall be 14 borne by the employers of the members of the New York state and local 15 employees' retirement system.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would deem Andrew Reilly Jr. to have applied to the New York State and Local Employees' Retirement System (NYSLERS) for disability benefits within thirty days of their disability on February 20, 2020.

If this bill is enacted during the 2023 legislative session, and Andrew Reilly Jr. is subsequently approved for disability benefits pursuant to section 605 of the Retirement and Social Security Law, there will be an immediate past service cost of approximately $222,000 which
