- 74. Privileges in action for libel or defamation. 1. (a) A civil 4 action cannot be maintained against any person, firm or corporation, for the publication of a fair and true report of any judicial proceeding, legislative proceeding or other official proceeding, or for any heading of the report which is a fair and true headnote of the statement published.
- 9 (b) This [section does] subdivision shall not apply to a libel 10 contained in any other matter added by any person concerned in the publication; or in the report of anything said or done at the time and place of such a proceeding which was not a part thereof. 12
- 13 2. (a) A communication made by an individual, without malice, regard-14 ing an incident of sexual assault, harassment, or discrimination shall 15 be deemed privileged.
- (b) A prevailing defendant in any defamation action brought against 16 17 such defendant for making a communication that is privileged under paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be entitled to their reasonable 18 attorney's fees and costs for successfully defending themselves in such 19 20 litigation, plus treble damages for any harm caused to them by the defa-21 mation action against them, in addition to punitive damages available or 22 any other relief otherwise permitted by law.
- (c) This subdivision shall only apply to an individual that has, or at 23 24 any time had, a reasonable basis to file a complaint of sexual assault,
