AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to resources and programs available to foster care youth

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 383-d to read as follows:

§ 383-d. Resources and programs available to foster care youth. The commissioner of the office of children and family services, in consultation with the commissioner of education, shall develop educational materials regarding resources and programs available to foster care youth who are preparing to attend or are attending institutions of higher education including information on funding opportunities that are available for such youth. Such materials shall include posters and pamphlets and shall be made available to institutions of higher education, and at a minimum, be posted on the office's website.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
