health in accordance with article twenty-nine-G of the public health law. The commissioner shall develop regulations to implement the provisions of this paragraph, in consultation with the commissioners of health, mental health, and the office for people with developmental disabilities.

(ii) Health professionals who provide services [~~in licensed school-based health, dental or mental health clinics~~] pursuant to this paragraph shall be duly licensed pursuant to the provisions of title eight of this chapter unless otherwise exempted by law and shall be authorized to provide such services to the extent permitted by their respective practice acts.

(iii) Except where otherwise authorized by law, the cost of providing health, dental or mental health services, including telehealth services, shall not be a charge upon the school district [~~or~~], board of cooperative educational services, or charter school, and shall be paid from federal, state or other local funds available for such purpose. Building space used for [~~such a clinic~~] the provision of health, dental or mental health services, including telehealth services, shall be excluded from the rated capacity of the school building for the purpose of computing building aid pursuant to subdivision six of section thirty-six hundred two of this chapter or aid pursuant to subdivision five of section nineteen hundred fifty of this chapter.

(iv) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to justify a cause of action for damages against a school district [~~or a~~], board of cooperative educational services, or charter school, by reason of acts of negligence or misconduct by a school-based health, dental or mental health clinic or such clinic's officers or employees or by a telehealth provider or such telehealth provider's officers or employees.

(v) Telehealth services may only be provided to students pursuant to this paragraph if the student has written consent from a parent or person in parental relation.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
