AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to establishing the homeowner protection program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 265-c to read as follows:

§ 265-c. Homeowner protection program. 1. Legislative intent. The legislature declares that the establishment of the homeowner protection program (HOPP) is necessary to ensure continuation of New York's investment in its statewide network of non-profit civil legal services providers and housing counseling agencies offering a range of homeownership retention and preservation services to homeowners in every county in the state. The program is also necessary to ensure that the statutory mandates of sections thirteen hundred three and thirteen hundred four of the real property actions and proceedings law and rule thirty-four hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules are fulfilled, so that free housing counseling and legal services are available to homeowners as provided for by sections thirteen hundred three and thirteen hundred four of the real property actions and proceedings law in every county, and so that legal services are available to assist homeowners answering complaints and participating in mandatory settlement conferences pursu-

2 rules.

3 2. Counseling and legal representation of individuals who are facing 4 loss of their home or threats to homeownership. (a) Within one year of 5 the effective date of this section, the department of law shall estab-
6 lish the homeowner protection program to ensure the availability of free 7 housing counseling and legal services to homeowners for the purposes of 8 mitigating threats to homeownership including, but not limited to,
9 homeownership retention, home preservation, estate planning, as a tool 10 for preventing theft of real property and other scams targeted to home-11 owners, preventing avoidable foreclosures and displacement, preserving 12 home equity, preserving homeownership, especially in communities of 13 color, and for any other purposes related to preserving homeownership.
14 Such program shall be funded by annual appropriation by the legislature.

15 (b) The department of law shall provide grants to eligible not-for-16 profit housing counseling organizations and legal services organizations 17 to provide services under the program. Such services shall include, but 18 not be limited to, assistance with loss mitigation and loan and workout
19 applications and negotiations; assistance in applying for assistance 20 programs for homeowners; assistance with resolving property tax, utility 21 and building code violation debts and liens; representation in mortgage 22 and tax and utility lien foreclosure litigation, limited scope represen-23 tation at settlement conferences pursuant to rule thirty-four hundred 24 eight of the civil practice law and rules; assistance to unrepresented 25 litigants with answers and motions in judicial foreclosure proceedings 26 and brief advice; assistance to homeowners victimized by deed fraud, 27 distressed property consultant, partition and other scammers; and 28 redress of predatory and discriminatory lending, abusive mortgage 29 servicing, and property flipping, including affirmative litigation and 30 administrative complaints with federal, state and local fair housing 31 agencies; and for whatever other purpose deemed necessary by the depart-32 ment of law to preserve homeownership.

33 3. Program administration. (a) The department of law shall establish 34 criteria for selection of grant applications, review applications and 35 make awards, and exercise and perform such other functions as are 36 related to the purposes of this section.

37 (b) The department of law shall make one-year grants, within the 38 amounts appropriated for that purpose, to not-for-profit housing coun-
39 seling organizations serving homeowners at risk of losing their homes, 40 and legal services organizations, to provide counseling services and 41 legal representation of persons who reside in the state of New York who 42 are facing threats to homeownership.

43 (c) The department of law shall make one-year grants, within the 44 amounts appropriated for that purpose, to ensure that housing counseling 45 and legal services are available free of charge to homeowners in every 46 county of the state and to ensure that the statutory mandates of 47 sections thirteen hundred three and thirteen hundred four of the real 48 property actions and proceedings law and rule thirty-four hundred eight 49 of the civil practice law and rules are fulfilled.

50 (d) The department of law shall make one-year grants, within the 51 amounts appropriated for that purpose, to ensure adequate training, 52 technical assistance and support is provided to the not-for-profit hous-
53 ing counseling and legal services organizations providing services under 54 this section, and to ensure the management of grants and supportive 55 services including, but not limited to, toll-free hotlines, dedicated

1 outreach, technical expertise and other assistance is made available to 2 the organizations providing services.

3 4. Reporting. Each not-for-profit housing counseling organization and 4 legal services organization receiving a grant under this section shall 5 at a minimum report to the attorney general no later than sixty days 6 after the end of each one-year grant. Such report shall include an 7 accounting of the funds received by the grant and the services provided.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
