AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to aggravated cruelty to animals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 353-a of the agriculture and markets law, as added by chapter 118 of the laws of 1999, are amended to read as follows:

1. A person is guilty of aggravated cruelty to animals when, with no justifiable purpose, he or she intentionally kills or intentionally causes serious physical injury to a companion animal or wildlife, as defined in subdivision six of section 11-0103 of the environmental conservation law, other than insects, with aggravated cruelty. For purposes of this section, "aggravated cruelty" shall mean conduct which: (i) is intended to cause extreme physical pain; or (ii) is done or carried out in an especially depraved or sadistic manner.

2. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit or interfere in any way with anyone lawfully engaged in hunting, trapping, [~~or~~] fishing, or taking as provided in article eleven of the environmental conservation law, activities deemed to be sound agricultural practices pursuant to section three hundred eight of this chapter, or reasonable activities for the purpose of managing pests that is in accordance with federal, state, and local laws and regulations, the dispatch of rabid or diseased animals, as provided in article twenty-one of the public health law, or the dispatch of animals posing a threat to human safety or other animals, where such action is otherwise legally
