2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

June 15, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. SIMON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to recounts of election votes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 9-208 of the election law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1-a. Subsequent to the recount provided for by subdivision one of this section, and prior to the certification of the final vote count of any general, special or primary election, an additional recount of all votes cast in the election shall be conducted by the board of elections or bipartisan committee under any of the following circumstances:

(a) The difference in ballots cast for the candidates for any position is ten or less votes or one-half of one percent of the ballots cast for such position, whichever shall be greater. The board of elections or bipartisan committee shall count all ballots cast for the race in question by hand, including those ballots scanned by a ballot scanner. The cost of the recount shall be paid by the jurisdiction conducting the recount.

(b) A losing candidate requests a recount of the votes cast for the position he or she ran for.

(i) The requesting candidate may provide the county board of elections or bipartisan committee with a list of up to three precincts that are to be recounted first and may waive the balance of the recount after these precincts have been counted.

(ii) The recount shall be completed within five days of the filing of request for recount. If the recount is conducted in two stages, as provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the recount shall be completed within five days of the second stage. The race under recount shall not be certified until the hand count is completed. The board of elections or bipartisan committee shall count all ballots cast for the race in question by hand, including those ballots scanned by a ballot scanner.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (iii) Such recount shall be conducted at the requesting candidate's
2 expense and the requesting candidate shall file with the jurisdiction 3 conducting the recount a bond, cash, or surety in an amount set by the 4 jurisdiction conducting the recount for the payment of the recount
5 expenses; provided, however, that the cost of the recount shall be paid 6 by the jurisdiction conducting the recount if:

7 (1) upon the recount any candidate on the ballot other than the 8 winning candidate is found to be the winner of the race; or

9 (2) the ballot images for the race under recount differ from the 10 machine count on one or more ballot boxes. Ballot images shall be posted 11 on the county board of elections website no later than five days after 12 the election.

13 (iv) The cost per ballot for the hand count of ballots shall be estab-
14 lished and posted by each county board of elections before an election, 15 with a maximum fee of twenty-five cents per ballot. If it is not so 16 posted, the fee charged the candidate shall be twenty-five cents per 17 ballot.

18 (c) Upon the original recount of the results of a referendum or propo-19 sition, and prior to the certification of the final vote count, any 20 voter eligible to vote on the ballot question, in a county, school
21 district or municipal election may initiate a recount of the paper
22 ballots upon either the following conditions:

23 (i) The difference between the approval votes and the disapproval
24 votes on a question is less than one-half of one percent of the total 25 number of votes cast. Such recount shall be conducted at the expense of 26 the jurisdiction conducting the recount. The board of elections or 27 bipartisan committee shall count all ballots cast for the race in ques-28 tion by hand, including those ballots scanned by a ballot scanner.

29 (ii) The difference between the approval votes and the disapproval
30 votes on a question is more than one-half of one percent of the total 31 number of votes cast. The requesting voter shall file for a recount by 32 submitting a petition including signatures from twenty-five voters
33 eligible to have voted on the referendum or proposition. Such recount 34 shall be conducted at the expense of the requesting voter and the 35 requesting voter shall file with the jurisdiction conducting the recount 36 a bond, cash, or surety in an amount set by the jurisdiction conducting 37 the recount for the payment of the recount expenses; provided, however, 38 that if upon the recount, the voting results on the referendum or propo-39 sition are reversed the cost of the recount shall be paid by the juris-40 isdiction conducting the recount.

41 (d) A request for a recount pursuant to the terms of this subdivision 42 shall be made within five days of the completion of the original 43 recount.

44 (e) Recount costs incurred by a jurisdiction shall be reimbursed by 45 the state.

46 (f) The candidate, the public and the media shall receive advance
47 notice of the recount, and the recount shall be made public.

48 (g) No person who was a candidate at such election shall participate 49 in or supervise the recount but may be present to observe as provided by 50 existing law.

51 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 52 elections conducted on or after such effective date. Effective imme-53 diately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation 54 necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 55 authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
