Introduced by M. of A. SIMON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to a training course and curriculum on the handling, investigation and response procedures concerning reports of domestic violence

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 837 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 24 to read as follows:

3 24. (a) (i) The division shall develop and approve a training course
4 and curriculum on the handling, investigation and response procedures
5 concerning reports of domestic violence. This training course and 6 curriculum shall be reviewed at least every two years and modified by 7 the division from time to time as need may require. The division shall 8 distribute the curriculum to all local police agencies.

9 (ii) The attorney general shall be responsible for ensuring that all 10 law enforcement officers attend initial training within ninety days of 11 appointment or transfer and annual inservice training of at least four 12 hours as described in this section.

13 (b) (i) The chief administrator of the courts shall develop and 14 approve a training course and a curriculum on the handling, investi-
15 gation and response procedures concerning allegations of domestic 16 violence. This training course shall be reviewed at least every two 17 years and modified by the chief judge from time to time as need may 18 require.

19 (ii) The chief administrator of the courts shall be responsible for 20 ensuring that all judges and judicial personnel attend initial training 21 within ninety days of appointment or transfer and annual inservice
22 training as described in this section.

23 (iii) The division and the chief administrator of the courts shall 24 provide that all training on the handling of domestic violence matters
