Introduced by M. of A. FAHY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT in relation to prohibiting the higher education services corporation from revoking or seeking remittance of awards made in error during certain academic years due to misclassification of certain students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding section 662 of the education law, or any other law, rule, or regulation to the contrary, the higher education services corporation shall not revoke or seek remittance for any award made under article 14 of the education law for the 2020--2021, 2021--2022, or 2022--2023 academic years, where such award was made through error due to the misclassification of a student who was granted exclusion of parental income with no dependent, as a student who was granted exclusion of parental income with a dependent, pursuant to the award schedule under section 667 of the education law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
