IN ASSEMBLY

December 13, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. CRUZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring September eleventh awareness curriculum or instruction for school districts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 804-e
2 to read as follows:

3 § 804-e. September eleventh awareness curriculum or instruction. 1.
4 The commissioner, in consultation with any appropriate agency, shall
5 establish September eleventh (9/11) awareness curriculum or instruction
6 for school districts regarding the September eleventh, two thousand one
7 attacks on the United States of America and their ongoing repercussions.
8 The content of such curriculum or instruction may be varied to meet the 9 needs of particular school districts, or portions thereof, and need not 10 be uniform throughout the state.

11 2. The content of such curriculum or instruction shall be age appro-
12 priate and shall be developed according to the needs and abilities of 13 pupils at successive grade levels in order to provide skills, informa-
14 tion, and guidance to aid in September eleventh awareness.

15 3. The content of the curriculum or instruction shall include the 16 following core tenets and themes:

17 (a) antecedents of 9/11;

18 (b) the events of the day and the global impact of the attacks;

19 (c) the response by first responders and other agencies on 9/11 and 20 during the ensuing rescue and recovery operation which lasted until May 21 thirtieth, two thousand twenty-two;

22 (d) examples of heroism, resilience, and service that emerged during 23 and after 9/11 from people all over the world;

24 (e) the global response to terrorism following the events of 9/11;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD13245-02-3

1 (f) understanding the enduring repercussions of 9/11 including, but
2 not limited to, discussion of the balance between civil liberties and
3 national security, America's response to confronting and combating 4 discrimination post-9/11, and the social impacts that followed; and

5 (g) understanding how 9/11 and its aftermath contributed to the 6 following in the United States and abroad:

7 (i) Islamophobia and xenophobia in politics, domestic and foreign
8 policy/legislation, media, and general public attitudes;

9 (ii) increase in hate crimes and discrimination; and

10 (iii) the impact of Islamophobia, xenophobia, racism, religious intol-
11 erance, and other forms of discrimination in society.

12 4. The educational resources used in the curriculum or instruction
13 shall be age appropriate, factually accurate, sourced from reputable
14 sources such as the National September 11 Memorial & Museum, and aid in 15 students' understanding of what happened on 9/11 and in its aftermath,
16 and the continuing importance of the attacks today.

17 5. Schools may include the curriculum or instruction required by this 18 section as a component of its social studies curriculum or in any other
19 manner the school deems appropriate.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding
21 the date upon which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately,
22 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation neces-
23 sary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 24 authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
