IN ASSEMBLY

December 13, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. DURSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to certain claims for death benefits based on death due to COVID-19 in memory of Joseph Fletcher; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "Joseph Fletcher act".

3 § 2. The workers' compensation law is amended by adding a new section
4 3-a to read as follows:

5 § 3-a. Reopening of claims for COVID-19 death benefits. 1. A claim for 6 death benefits based on a diagnosis of COVID-19 resulting in the death
7 of the employee shall not be disallowed as barred by section eighteen or 8 section twenty-eight of this chapter if such claim is filed within one
9 year of the effective date of this section. Any subsequent claims may be 10 filed after such period in accordance with sections eighteen and twen-
11 ty-eight of this chapter.

12 2. The board shall permit the filing of claims for death benefits due
13 to COVID-19 which were previously denied due to section eighteen or 14 twenty-eight of this chapter prior to the effective date of this 15 section, and shall, upon application, re-hear and determine such claims.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 17 deemed repealed two years after such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
