Introduced by M. of A. ANGELINO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, in relation to prohibiting any governmental entity from discriminating against and closing a place of worship during an emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Protecting 2 Religious Assembly in States of Emergency (PRAISE) Act".

3 § 2. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 79-r to 4 read as follows:

5 § 79-r. Protecting religious assembly in states of emergency. 1.
6 Protection for places of worship. Any order, rule, regulation, or other 7 directive, issued by any governmental entity pursuant to an emergency or 8 health or safety determination, that requires closure or limitation of 9 any business or other facility otherwise open to public use or patro-
10 nage, but which exempts in whole or in part any particular entity or set 11 of entities, shall exempt to the same extent any place of worship enti-
12 tled to the religious exemption found in Section 501(c)(3) of Title 26
13 of the United States Code, to the same extent as the exempt entity. This 14 section shall be construed to afford to religious institutions and plac-15 es of worship the same degree of freedom to meet as is afforded to the 16 most favored entity or set of entities.

17 2. Enforcement. Any person or entity burdened or impaired by a 18 violation of this section may bring a civil action for relief against 19 such burden or impairment in any court of competent jurisdiction. Relief 20 may include injunctive orders, compensatory damages, nominal damages, a 21 declaration of a violation, and, where malice or recklessness is demon-
22 strated, punitive damages.

23 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
