AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to notification of a data breach

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 and subdivision 3 of 2 section 899-aa of the general business law, as amended by chapter 117 of 3 the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

4 Any person or business which owns or licenses computerized data which 5 includes private information shall disclose any breach of the security 6 of the system following discovery or notification of the breach in the 7 security of the system to any resident of New York state whose private 8 information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, accessed or 9 acquired by a person without valid authorization. The disclosure shall 10 be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable
11 delay, [~~consistent with~~] provided that such notification shall be made 12 within thirty days after the breach has been discovered, except for the 13 legitimate needs of law enforcement, as provided in subdivision four of 14 this section[~~, or any measures necessary to determine the scope of the~~ 15 ~~breach and restore the integrity of the system~~].

16 3. Any person or business which maintains computerized data which 17 includes private information which such person or business does not own 18 shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of 19 the security of the system immediately, provided that such notification 20 shall be made within thirty days following discovery, if the private 21 information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, accessed or 22 acquired by a person without valid authorization.

23 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 899-aa of the general
24 business law, as amended by chapter 117 of the laws of 2019, is amended 25 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
