Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT in relation to creating a temporary commission to conduct a comprehensive study on the current utilization of paid family leave, make recommendations on how to increase access and the visibility of the program; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. A temporary state commission is hereby created to conduct a 2 comprehensive study, and prepare a report on the current utilization of 3 paid family leave under article 9 of the workers' compensation law.

4 § 2. (a) The commission shall consist of twelve members appointed by 5 the governor as follows: (i) a representative of organized labor
6 appointed upon recommendation of the New York State American Federation 7 of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations; (ii) a representative of 8 the business community appointed upon recommendation of the Business
9 Council of New York State, Incorporated; (iii) two persons upon recom-
10 mendation of the temporary president of the senate; (iv) one person 11 upon recommendation of the minority leader of the senate; (v) two 12 persons upon recommendation of the speaker of the assembly; (vi) one 13 person upon recommendation of the minority leader of the assembly; (vii) 14 the commissioner of labor; (viii) the superintendent of financial 15 services; (ix) the chair of the workers' compensation board; and (x) one 16 other person in the governor's discretion. The chair of the workers'
17 compensation board shall serve as the chair of the commission. Vacancies 18 in the membership of the commission and among its officers shall be 19 filled in the manner provided for original appointments.

20 (b) The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for 21 their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses 22 incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

23 § 3. The study shall examine the current utilization of paid family 24 leave under article 9 of the workers' compensation law, including but 25 not limited to:
