Introduced by M. of A. GIBBS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the cannabis law, in relation to employment at certain licensees for the purposes of parole conditions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 6 of section 127 of the cannabis law is amended 2 to read as follows:

3 6. (a) A person currently under parole, probation or other state 4 supervision, or released on recognizance, non-monetary conditions, or 5 bail prior to being convicted, shall not be punished or otherwise penal-6 ized for conduct allowed under this chapter unless the terms and condi-
7 tions of said parole, probation, or state supervision explicitly prohib-
8 it a person's cannabis use or any other conduct otherwise allowed under 9 this chapter. A person's use of cannabis or conduct under this chapter 10 shall not be prohibited unless it has been shown by clear and convincing 11 evidence that the prohibition is reasonably related to the underlying 12 crime. Nothing in this provision shall restrict the rights of a certi-13 fied medical patient.

14 (b) A person currently under parole, probation or other state super-15 vision, who as a condition of such parole, probation or other state
16 supervision is required to be employed, may fulfill such employment 17 requirement through employment at any licensee under this chapter unless 18 the terms and conditions of said parole, probation, or state supervision 19 explicitly prohibit such person's employment at such licensee.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
