8 against expenses, including judgments, fines, excise taxes, amounts paid
9 in settlement, attorneys' fees, court costs and disbursements actually 10 and necessarily incurred as a result of action or proceeding, or any 11 appeal thereof, arising out of service as a director, officer or key 12 person (1) who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to 13 any threatened, pending or contemplated action or proceeding, or any 14 appeal thereof, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative 15 (including an action by or in the right of the corporation and/or by its 16 members, if any, or in the right of any other corporation of any kind, 17 domestic or foreign and/or by its members, if any), or by any partner-

2 (ii) who is or was serving in any capacity at the request of the corpo-
3 ration as a director, officer or key person of another corporation, 4 partnership, joint venture, trust, estate, employee benefit plan or 5 other enterprise.

6 (b) The termination of any action or proceeding, including an action
7 by or in the right of the corporation and/or by its members, by judg-8 ment, order, settlement, adjudging liability to the director, officer or 9 key person, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equiv-
10 alent shall not necessarily create a presumption that the (1) director, 11 officer or key person did not act in accordance with the standards of 12 care set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, and (2) with respect to 13 any criminal action or proceeding, did not have reasonable cause to 14 believe that the director's, officer's or key person's conduct was 15 unlawful.

16 (c) No indemnification shall be made by the corporation if such direc-
17 tor, officer or key person shall have been adjudged to be liable,
18 including liability to the corporation, unless and only to the extent 19 that the court, in which such action or proceeding was brought, shall 20 determine, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability
21 but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such director, officer 22 or key person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification with 23 respect to all or any of the judgments, fines, excise taxes, amounts 24 paid in settlement, attorneys' fees, court costs and disbursements actu-
25 ally and necessarily incurred, because the director, officer or key
26 person had made a good faith effort to meet the standards of conduct set 27 forth in this article.

28 (d) Expenses, including attorneys' fees, court costs and disburse-
29 ments, incurred by a director, officer or key person of the corporation
30 or by persons serving at the request of the corporation as directors, 31 officers or key persons of another corporation, partnership, joint 32 venture, trust or other enterprise, in defending any civil, criminal, 33 administrative or investigative action or proceeding, arising out of 34 such service, may be paid, if authorized in accordance with paragraph 35 (e) of this section, in advance of the final disposition of such action 36 or proceeding, upon receipt by the corporation of an undertaking in 37 accordance with article 25 of the civil practice law and rules by or on 38 behalf of such director, officer or key person to repay such amount if 39 she or he shall ultimately be determined not to be entitled to be indem-
40 nified as authorized in this section.

41 (e) Any indemnification or advancement under this section, except for 42 one ordered by a court, shall be made only in the specific action or 43 proceeding upon a determination that indemnification of the present or 44 former director, officer or key person is proper in the circumstances
45 because the person has met or in the case of an advance can be reason-46 ably expected to meet the applicable standard of conduct set forth in 47 paragraph (a) of this section:

48 (1) by a majority vote of the directors of the corporation who are not 49 parties to such action or proceeding, even though less than a quorum;

50 (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of 51 such directors, even though less than a quorum;

52 (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by 53 independent legal counsel in a reasoned written opinion; or

54 (4) by the members, if any.

55 (f) A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising 56 under a provision of the certificate of incorporation, a bylaw or a resolution of the board or of a committee thereof shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to the certificate of incorporation to the bylaws or to the resolution after the occurrence of the act or omission that is the subject of the civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action or proceeding for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of such act or omission explicitly authorizes such elimination or impairment after such action or omission has occurred.

(g) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer or key person of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer or key person of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, estate, employee benefit or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to "the corporation" shall include, in addition to a consolidated or surviving corporation, any constituent corporation, including any constituent of a constituent, absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers or key persons that any person who is or was a director, officer or key person of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer or key person of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, estate, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer or key person and shall inure to the benefit of her or his heirs, executors and administrators if that person was a director, officer or key person at the time the cause of action or claim arose or prosecution was threatened or information or indictment was filed.

(j) For the purpose of this section, a corporation shall be deemed to have requested a person to serve an employee benefit plan where the performance by such person of her or his duties to the corporation also imposes duties on, or otherwise involves services by, such person to the plan or participants or beneficiaries of the plan; excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan pursuant to applicable law shall be considered fines; and action taken or omitted by a person with respect to an employee benefit plan in the performance of such person's duties for a purpose reasonably believed by such person to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan shall be deemed to be for a purpose which is not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

§ 3. Section 724 of the not-for-profit corporation law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 1987, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 549 of the laws of 2013, is renumbered section 722 and amended to read as follows:

§ 722. Indemnification of directors [~~and~~], officers or key persons by a court.

(a) Notwithstanding the failure of a corporation to provide indemnification, and despite any contrary resolution of the board, of a committee thereof or of the members in the specific case under section ~~[723]~~ 721 ~~[(Payment of indemnification other than by court award)]~~ (Authorization for indemnification of directors, officers or key persons; insurance), indemnification ~~[shall]~~ may be awarded by a court to the extent authorized under section ~~[722 (Authorization for indemnification of directors and officers), and paragraph (a) of section 723 (Payment of indemnification other than by court award)]~~ 721 (Authorization for indemnification of directors, officers or key persons; insurance). Application therefor shall be made on notice to the attorney general and may be made, in every case, either:

(1) In the civil action or proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, or

(2) To the supreme court in a separate proceeding, in which case the application shall set forth the disposition of any previous application made to any court for the same or similar relief and also reasonable cause for the failure to make application for such relief in the action or proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid.

(b) The application shall be made in such manner and form as may be required by the applicable rules of court or, in the absence thereof, by direction of a court to which it is made. Such application shall be upon notice to the corporation. The court may also direct that notice be given at the expense of the corporation to the members and such other persons as it may designate in such manner as it may require.

(c) Where indemnification is sought by judicial action, the court may allow a person such reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, during the pendency of the litigation as are necessary in connection with his defense therein, if the court shall find that the defendant has by his pleadings or during the course of the litigation raised genuine issues of fact or law.

§ 4. Section 725 of the not-for-profit corporation law is renumbered section 723.

§ 5. The section heading and subdivision (a) of section 723 of the not-for-profit corporation law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 1987 and such section as renumbered by section 4 of this act, are amended to read as follows:

Other provisions affecting indemnification of directors ~~[and]~~ officers and key persons.

8 States internal revenue code shall be liable to any person other than 9 such corporation, association, organization or trust based solely on his 10 or her conduct in the execution of such office unless the conduct of 11 such director, officer, key person or trustee with respect to the person 12 asserting liability constituted gross negligence or was intended to 13 cause the resulting harm to the person asserting such liability. For 14 purposes of this section, such a director, officer, key person or trustee 15 shall not be considered compensated solely by reason of payment of 16 his or her actual expenses incurred in attending meetings or otherwise 17 in the execution of such office.

18 § 7. The rights to indemnification that accrued prior to the effective
19 date of this act shall be determined by the not-for-profit corporation
