

STATE OF NEW YORK

9744

IN ASSEMBLY

April 3, 2024

Introduced by M. of A. ZINERMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to enacting the "house New Yorkers first act"; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "house New Yorkers first act".

3 § 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 283 to 4 read as follows:

5 § 283. House New Yorkers first act. 1. For purposes of this section,
6 the following terms shall have the following meanings:

7 (a) "Residential real property" means real property improved by a one-
8 to four-family residence, a condominium or a cooperative unit.

9 (b) "Foreign entity" or "foreign entities" means an individual who is 10 not a citizen of the United States, or such individual's successors and 11 assigns, or a corporation, trust, association or partnership organized
12 outside the laws of the United States, or such corporation, trust, asso-
13 ciation or partnership's successors and assigns.

14 2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for a five-year
15 period beginning on the effective date of this section, no foreign enti-
16 ty shall purchase any residential real property within the state of New 17 York, unless such foreign entity purchases such property for the purpose
18 of establishing a primary residence within the state.

19 (b) Sellers of residential real property shall verify that purchasers
20 are not foreign entities prior to executing any conveyance.

21 3. (a) In the year two thousand twenty-seven, the department of state,
22 in conjunction with the city of New York department of city, shall 23 conduct a study on residential housing data collected throughout the 24 state. Such study shall analyze such data collected on and after the 25 effective date of this section against data collected from two thousand
26 ten until the date this section took effect and determine if such data
27 indicates a retention of residents who live in the state as their prima-

1 ry residence or a trend of residents leaving the state, based on the 2 indicators set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. Such data to 3 be analyzed shall include, but not be limited to:

4 (i) foreclosure rates in the state as determined by the office of the 5 comptroller;

6 (ii) municipal tax rolls to assess property conveyance rates;

7 (iii) the amount of evictions commenced in the state;

8 (iv) monthly housing market index (HMI) surveys conducted by the 9 national association of home builders; and

10 (iv) any other information the department of state or the city of New 11 York department of city deems relevant.

12 (b) Such study shall assess, but not be limited to, the following
13 indicators based on the data collected in accordance with paragraph (a)
14 of this subdivision:

15 (i) the amount of New York state residents who have retained homeown-16 ership in the state since the moratorium established by this section has 17 gone into effect against the amount of New York state residents who have 18 retained homeownership in the state prior to the moratorium established 19 by this section taking effect; and

20 (ii) the strength and stability of the housing market in the state
21 since the moratorium established by this section has gone into effect
22 against the strength and stability of the housing market in the state
23 prior to the moratorium established by this section taking effect.

24 (c) A report on such study shall be provided to the governor, the 25 speaker of the assembly, and the temporary president of the senate no
26 later than one year following the completion of such study.

27 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 28 deemed repealed on the first day next succeeding five years after it
29 shall have become a law.
