Introduced by M. of A. BRAUNSTEIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to create a temporary state commission to be known as the temporary state commission on New York city property tax reform

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. a. A temporary state commission is hereby created to be 2 known as the temporary state commission on New York city property tax 3 reform. The temporary commission shall consist of thirteen members as 4 follows: the commissioner of taxation and finance and two additional 5 members appointed by the governor; two members appointed by the tempo-6 rary president of the senate and one by the minority leader of the 7 senate, all of whom shall be members of the body; two members appointed 8 by the speaker of the assembly and one member by the minority leader of 9 the assembly, all of whom shall be members of the body; one member 10 appointed by the speaker of the New York city council; the commissioner 11 of the New York city department of finance; one member appointed by the 12 comptroller of the city of New York, and one member appointed by the 13 mayor of the city of New York. The commissioner of taxation and finance 14 shall serve as chair.

15 b. No member, officer or employee of the commission shall be disquali-16 fied from holding any other public office or employment, nor shall lie 17 forfeit any such office or employment by reason of appointment here-18 under, notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special or local 19 law, ordinance or city charter.

20 c. All appointments to the temporary commission shall be made within 21 fourteen days of the effective date of this act.

22 d. The members of the temporary commission shall receive no compen-
23 sation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and neces-24 sary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

25 § 2. a. The goal of the temporary commission shall be to propose prop-
26 erty tax reform for the city of New York that promotes fairness, clari-
27 ty, and simplicity; that eliminates structural inequality and taxes
28 similar properties similarly; that encourages the development and pres-

1 ervation of affordable and multifamily housing; that includes owner
2 relief programs and an approach to transition that insures low- and 3 moderate-income owners have affordable tax bills and that primary resi-
4 dents are not displaced from their homes; and that does not diminish
5 revenue for the city of New York.

6 b. The mayor of the city of New York shall, on or before August 31, 7 2024 present to the temporary commission a plan for reform of the New 8 York city property tax that advances the goal of the temporary commis-9 sion. In preparing such plan, the mayor will be guided by the report and 10 proceedings of the New York City Advisory Commission on Property Tax 11 Reform and shall denote in such plan any deviations from the advisory 12 commission's recommendations as well as any other sources relied upon by 13 the mayor in preparation of the plan required by this subdivision.

14 c. Upon receipt and review of such plan, the temporary commission 15 shall make a report of recommendations for legislative action to the 16 governor and the legislature on or before December 31, 2024. Such recom-17 mendations shall take the form of draft legislation that advances the 18 goals of subdivision a of this section and includes a mandatory cyclical 19 review of the property tax system.

20 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
