Senate Resolution No. 2693

BY: Senator STEWART-COUSINS

AMENDING Senate Resolution R1406 of 2023, establishing a plan setting forth an itemized list of grantees for a certain appropriation for the 2023-24 state fiscal year for services and expenses of community safety and restorative justice programs, which include but are not limited to, support for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, gun violence prevention, legal services, alternatives to incarceration, community supervision, and re-entry initiatives, gang and crime reduction strategies managed by local governments and/or community-based not-for-profits service providers. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the amounts appropriated herein may be sub-allocated or transferred between other state agencies, including but not limited to the department of corrections and community supervision, the office of indigent legal services, the office of victim services, and the office for the prevention of domestic violence, as required by a plan setting forth an itemized list of grantees with the amount to be received by each, or the methodology for allocating such appropriation. Such plan shall be subject to the approval of the temporary president of the senate and the director of the budget and thereafter shall be included in a resolution calling for the expenditure of such funds, which resolution must be approved by a majority vote of all members elected to the senate upon a roll call vote

RESOLVED, That funds originally appropriated in 2023, pursuant to section 1 of chapter 53 of the laws of 2023 and as reappropriated pursuant to section 1 of chapter 53 of the laws of 2024 which enacts the aid to localities, local assistance account, for services and expenses of community safety and restorative justice programs, which include but are not limited to, support for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, gun violence prevention, legal services, alternatives to incarceration, community supervision and re-entry initiatives, gang, and crime reduction strategies managed by local governments and/or community-based not-for-profits service providers. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the amounts appropriated herein may be sub-allocated or transferred between other state agencies, including but not limited to the department of corrections and community supervision, the office of indigent legal services, the office of victim services, and the office for the prevention of domestic violence. Such funds shall be apportioned pursuant to a plan setting forth an itemized list of grantees with the amount to be received by each, or the methodology for allocating such appropriation. Such plan shall be subject to the approval of the temporary president of the senate and the director of the budget and thereafter shall be included in a resolution calling for the expenditure of such monies, which resolution must be approved by a
